

*****

1. The first issue of The Font will appear as customary on College Day, Oct. 15. This News Letter, through the courtesy of the staff of The Font, brings to faculty and students announcements of activities to be held before the date of publication.
2. Rev. Benjamin J. Fulkerson, S.J. from St. Louis University, is speaker at assembly today. He will discuss "The Sodality on the College Campus." He is moderator of the women's sodality of the University and professor of religion.
3. INVITATION: You are invited to attend the first meeting of the St. Louis University Sociology Club to be held Thursday night, October 7th in the Women's Lounge of DuBourg Hall, 221 North Grand Blvd.
 Feature: Talk & Discussion on "The Proposed Slum Clearance Project"
 by a Prominent member of the City Plan Commission.
 Refreshments will be served.
4. Orders for student tickets for the concerts of the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra will be taken up to Thursday, October 7, by Pat Ware and Nancy Lanza. The first concert is to be held on October 15 in the Opera House of Kiel Auditorium. By Monday of this week, 220 tickets had been ordered. The fee per ticket is somewhat less than half the usual price.
5. LAY FACULTY MEETING: The Lay Faculty meeting will be held at 1:00 p.m. Thursday, October 7, 1948, in the cafeteria.
 FACULTY MEETING: The Faculty meeting will be held at 4:30 p.m., Thursday, October 7, 1948, in Ryan 309.
6. ROUND AND SQUARE DANCE: A Round and Square Dance will be sponsored by the senior class Friday, October 8 from 8 to 12 p.m., in the gymnasium. The dance is open, admission being 50¢ per person. Mrs. Marie Tueta will furnish music, instructing, and calling for the various polkas, waltzes, and round and square dance numbers. Refreshments of cider and doughnuts will be sold.
7. Fontbonne musicians are to play over W E W Saturday, Oct. 9, at 2:30 p.m. in the series "Tune In the Colleges", featuring the senior corporate colleges of St. Louis University. The series was opened Oct. 2 by Maryville College, and Webster College will broadcast Oct. 16, the plan being that the three schools provide programs in succession.
 On the Fontbonne program Doraldine Garcia will play two piano numbers, "Sonata in B flat", Scarlatti, and "Valse Romantique," Debussy; and will accompany Alice Cataldi who is to play two violin selections, "Romance from Second Concerts" by Wieniawski, and "Raindrops" by the St. Louis composer, Elis Levy.
8. "COME TO PICNIC" INVITATION OF THE ST. LOUIS U. SOCIOLOGY CLUB: You are invited to attend the picnic of the St. Louis U. Sociology Club to be held on Sunday, October 10, at the farm of Dr. Clement Mihanovich, moderator of the club. Admission to the picnic is $1.00 per person. This covers food and refreshments and entertainment. Since only a limited number of tickets are available, you are requested to purchase your tickets in advance.
9. Georgia Vessell, music student who was graduated last year, is to sing sacred numbers on the Catholic Program over K W K at 11:00 Sunday morning, Oct. 10. Doraldine Garcia will be accompanist. Fontbonne supplies music for every third broadcast in this Sunday morning series.

*****

10. The Sodality of Parks College will sponsor a picnic at the college Sunday, October 10 at 1 o'clock in the afternoon. Fontbonne sodalists are invited to attend. The morning of the same Sunday officers and committee chairmen of the Fontbonne Sodality will serve breakfast for the Parks Sodalists after their Communion Mass.
11. TE DEUM FORUM: The first Te Deum Forum of St. Louis, Missouri, will be presented on Sunday evening, October 10, 1948, at 8:15 p.m. at the Opera House-Municipal Auditorium. Dr. Herbert C.F. Bell, Ph. D., will speak on "Shoulder to Shoulder for Christ and America." All students interested in the Te Deum Forum may obtain tickets at Fontbonne College through the International Relations-Social Science Club. Announcement will be made when the tickets will be placed on sale this week at a reduced price of $1.50 instead of the regular price of $3.00.
12. MEETING: FONTBONNE INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS-SOCIAL SCIENCE CLUB: The first meeting of the current year of the Fontbonne International Relations Club will be held on Monday, October 11, 1948, in Ryan 309. All students interested in learning about the organization or joining are cordially invited to attend.
13. VOLUNTEER SERVICE IN COMMUNITY AGENCIES: On Tuesday, October 12, 1948, the Social Planning Council of St. Louis and St. Louis County will present speakers at the Assembly and then enroll all Fontbonne students who are interested in volunteer service in community agencies.
14. C.S.M.C. will hold its first meeting Oct. 13 in the recital room. Fr. Carroll Ruoff, S.J., uncle of Jane Ruoff who was graduated last year and entered the novitiate of the Sisters of St. Joseph of Carondelet, will be the speaker. He will relate his experiences as a missionary in British Honduras.
- On the same day, Mission Tags will be sold to raise money for the missions.
15. The Discussion Club of the Sodality will have its first meeting Oct. 13 at 7:30 p.m. in Ryan Hall. The spiritual director of the club, Rev. Francis M. Doyle, assistant pastor of Immacolata Catholic Church, will speak on Christian Marriage and Motherhood.
16. The Sodality will sponsor a movie Oct. 14 at 8:00 P.M. in the auditorium, Mary Schumacher, general chairman has announced. Jackie Wilkerson is in charge of the ticket committee and Mary Milligan heads the refreshment committee. Price of admission is 50 cents.
17. FONTBONNE THEATRE SCOOP: Charles Dicken's Masterpiece, "NICHOLAS NICKLEBY," starring Sir Cedric Hardwicke, will be presented at the ART THEATRE, 3143 Olive Street, St. Louis, Missouri, by the Fontbonne International Relations-Social Science Club. Sister Joseph Aloysius, C.S.J., Dean of the College, announces that no assembly will be held on Tuesday, October 19, 1948, in order to permit all interested students to attend the movie which will be shown at 3:30 p.m. Tickets will be sold on the campus this week for $1.00 each. Since only 125 tickets are available, you are urged to purchase yours as soon as possible to avoid disappointment.
18. LAY FACULTY DINNER: Members of the Lay Faculty and their wives, husbands and guests will have their regular "Get-Acquainted Dinner" on Tuesday evening, Oct. 19, 1948 at 6:30 p.m. at the Green Parrot Inn, Kirkwood, Missouri. The college chaplain and the clergy of the faculty will be honored guests of the lay faculty.

*****

LATE FLASHES! !

1. The Resident Students are holding a housewarming in the lounge of Medaille Hall on Wednesday, Oct. 6, from 10:30 to 11:30. The price of admission is some small article, such as a small plant, deck of cards, ash tray, or other piece suitable for furnishing their recreation room.

Situated on the fourth floor, this large lounge is east of the rooms on the second and third floors occupied by the seventy boarders.

2. STUDENT OPINION: "I shall be able to cast my vote for President intelligently" is the remark of many students as they leave the new class in Contemporary Affairs conducted by Dr. Wm. E. Van Taay, head of the departments of economics and sociology. At the weekly session on October 7, 1948, at 3:00 p.m., Dr. Van Taay will discuss the presidential campaign, the displaced persons program, the draft act, labor controversies, developments behind the Iron Curtain and other current topics. Seventy-three students are enrolled in the class with many faculty members attending as auditors. Dr. Van Taay requests that all students enrolled in the class obtain their Time or Newsweek magazines in the Lay Faculty Room, Ryan 202, without delay, and to pay the $1.80 subscription fee immediately. Miss Mary Ellen Roetto has been appointed student assistant to Dr. Van Taay and is actively participating in the conduct of the class.
3. COLLEGE DAY: Members of the Lay Faculty will appear in academic dress in continuation of the precedent established last College Day. Dr. Mary Isabel Winslow is in charge of details. Sister Joseph Aloysius, C.S.J., Dean, announces the appointment of Dr. Wm. E. Van Taay as Director of Transportation for College Day. All faculty members planning to visit Carondelet are requested to notify Dr. Van Taay not later than Tuesday, October 12 so that space may be assigned.
4. CONTRIBUTIONS, PLEASE: Contributions to the Font News Letter are earnestly solicited. For the convenience of faculty members and students, a mail box to receive news items has been assigned by Sister Anna James. It is among the bank of mail boxes for the faculty in the Information Office and is labeled: FONT NEWS LETTER.

Please use the space below for submitting YOUR news item for the next issue of the FONT NEWS LETTER which will be distributed at the close of the assembly on Tuesday, October 12, 1948.