

BOSNIAN EXPERTS ON BOSNIAN GENOCIDE TO SPEAK AT FONTBONNE UNIVERSITY

free and open to the public

Please see the back of this sheet for Fontbonne campus map and parking information.

7:00 PM, Monday, April 7,
Lewis Room in the lower level
of the Fontbonne University Library: Jasmin Odošačić, former Vice Chairman of the Bosnian State Commission on Missing Persons, will speak about his experiences exhuming mass graves near the Bosnian city of Prijedor, site of some of the worst atrocities in the war and genocide of the 1990s.

7:00 PM, Tuesday, April 8,
Lewis Room in the lower level
of the Fontbonne University Library: Rezak Hukanović, author of the award-winning book Tenth Circle of Hell: A Memoir of Life in the Death Camps of Bosnia, will speak about his experiences in the notorious Omarska concentration camp near Prijedor.

Mr. Odošačić and Mr. Hukanović are traveling from Bosnia-Herzegovina to St. Louis to participate in a panel discussion at the St. Louis Holocaust Museum and Learning Center; this discussion is part of the ongoing exhibit titled Prijedor: Lives from the Bosnian Genocide. For more information about the exhibit, see <http://www.fontbonne.edu/bosnia>.

