1. THE COLLEGE-DAY SKIT this year has been written by the members of the Student Council themselves. Everybody is invited to take part and is guaranteed a good time while lending a helping hand. Sign up on the bulletin board or see the Student Council officers in charge.
2. The assembly today is a program by the Social Planning Council of St. Louis. Mrs. Edward Schweich, vice-chairman of the VOLUNTEER SERVICE BUREAU, is speaking of opportunities for volunteer service and also will answer questions about her work. Any student interested in work in community agencies may register at the booths set up for this purpose.
3. Today, Oct. 12, is the scheduled deadline for the FORMAL YEARBOOK PHOTOGRAPHS for Seniors at Alta Quast Studio. Another date will soon be set for the return of proofs. Full cooperation in observing these schedules is requested by Mr. Francis W. Kinkel, moderator.

The junior, sophomore, and freshman classes will have their pictures taken within the next few weeks, and Mr. Kinkel asks that all watch the main bulletin board in Ryan Hall for announcements of time and place.

4. THE PHILOSOPHER'S APOSTOLATE will hold its regular weekly session at 4 o'clock today to continue the discussion of Marxian Communism and the evolution of this philosophy. This study club, found on many college campuses, springs from the need in our day of combatting philosophical errors, and is a direct outgrowth of the C.S.M.C. sessions held this summer at Notre Dame University.
5. THE CARDINAL GLENNON COMMUNITY THEATRE will open its third season with the presentation of the recent New York success, "Lady of Fatima", written by the Rev. Urban Nagle, O.P. The play will be presented Dec. 5, 6, and 7, in Fontbonne auditorium.

Tryouts open to everyone are to be held Oct. 13 and 14 at 7 p.m. in the auditorium. Places are to be filled in the cast and production crew. Any student interested is requested to get in touch with the director, Miss Mullins, as soon as possible.

6. The tickets for the production "NICHOLAS NICKLEBY" will be distributed on Oct. 13 and 14 to all who subscribed. The tickets, which were reduced to $1.00, may be obtained from Mary Ellen Roetto, Marian Bachmann, and Mildred Zeis. The showing is Oct. 19 at the Art Theatre, 3143 Olive Street.
7. New printed badges will be sold by the MISSION CRUSADERS on TAG DAY, Oct. 13, and the day preceding. The tags are to be worn to the Mission meeting Oct. 13 at 11:25 in the auditorium, when the speaker will be Fr. Carroll Ruoff, St. Louis Jesuit on vacation after several years work with the Caribs in British Honduras.
8. THE DISCUSSION CLUB OF THE SODALITY will have its first meeting Oct. 13 at 7:30 p.m. in Ryan Hall. The spiritual director of the club, Rev. Francis M. Doyle, assistant pastor of Immacolata Catholic Church, will speak on Christian Marriage and Motherhood. Questions and informal treatment of subjects presented from the floor are to be features of these meetings.
9. SUGGESTION FOR CHURCH-GOING: Wednesday, Oct. 13, is the anniversary of the last apparition of Our Lady at Fatima, during which occurred the Miracle of the Sun.
10. THE SODALITY will sponsor a MOVIE Oct. 14 at 8 p.m. in the auditorium. Mary Schumacher, general chairman, has announced that the picture to be shown is "The Bachelor and the Bobby Soxer". Sodality class representatives are taking care of ticket distribution. Admission is 50 cents.
11. The regular meeting of the FOOTLIGHTS CLUB will be held on Oct. 14 at 4 p.m. in Miss Mullins' studio. This meeting is open to former members only, and all these are urged to attend so that plans for the year may be arranged.
12. St. Joseph's Academy will on Oct. 14 hear a talk by CATHERINE MICELI. Catherine recently returned from an extensive tour through Italy, and will relate her experiences which include a visit with the Holy Father. The assembly is to be held at 8:45 a.m. in the auditorium, and Fontbonne students are invited to attend.
13. The first concert of the ST. LOUIS SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA is on Oct. 15 in the Opera House at Kiel Auditorium.
14. FATHER THOMAS COZZENS, C.S.S.R., instructor in religion, who has been suffering from pneumonia at St. Mary's Hospital, will be released from the hospital in a few days. Father Toups has meanwhile had charge of his class.

15. The members of the LAY FACULTY and their wives, husbands, and guests will have their regular "Get Acquainted Dinner" on Tuesday evening, Oct. 19, at 6:45 p.m. at the Green Parrot Inn, Kirkwood.
  16. THE FOOTLIGHTS CLUB invites all students interested in DRAMATICS AND THEATRE WORK to meet in the Speech Studio for a Coke Party on Wednesday, Oct. 20, at 4 p.m. A short meeting will disclose the purposes, the yearly program matter, and the social activities of the club. Tryouts will be arranged for new members in the following week, dates to be announced.
  17. THE FONTBONNE ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION will sponsor its PENNY CIRCUS on Friday, Oct. 22, at 8 p.m. in the gym. The highlight of the event is the coronation of the circus queen. The candidates are Rhett Finazzo, senior; Mary Lee Byrnes, junior; Nancy Carter, sophomore; and Marilyn Williams, freshman. The proceeds from the circus will go to the F.A.A. scholarship fund.
- All members are required to donate a cake, a box of homemade candy, a stuffed animal, or a half dollar. They are also urged to volunteer for committees by signing the form on the bulletin board.
18. MR. CARLO MARSELLI, instructor in Italian, is expected to return from his tour of Italy on November 1. Classes will begin at this time and be scheduled to enable the students to complete the work of a semester.
  19. THE MASTHEAD: Mary Lou Streit, senior, editor of this NEWSLETTER, is assisted by Dorothy Daly, Harriet Koutsoumpas, Gerry Wand, Patti Trapp, and Barbara Sullivan.
  20. Tickets for the future TE DEUM LECTURES may be obtained for $1.00 from Mari Kingston, Mary Ellen Roetto, Marian Bachmann, and Mildred Zeis. An innovation of the season is the privilege granted ticket-holders of bringing a guest to any lecture. The next lecture is by Dr. Kurt Von Schuschnigg on Nov. 7.
  21. THE MUSICAL EVENT OF THE YEAR is the production of "The Firefly" by Rudolph Friml to be given by the Glee Club on Nov. 21 and 22 in the auditorium. Male parts will be sung by students of the local universities.
  22. OUR LADY OF FONTBONNE PRAESIDIUM of the LEGION OF MARY will meet every Monday from 6:30 to 7:30 in the parlor of Science Building.
  23. "The Seven-Storey Mountain", the life of the convert-poet, THOMAS MERTON, now a Trappist in Gethsemane, Ky., is ordered for the Fontbonne library. The book is reviewed in Time for Oct. 11. Two chapters have appeared in The Commonweal: "Young American in England", Aug. 27, and "The Sweet Savor of Liberty", Sept. 17. A poem of Merton's, "To the Immaculate Virgin, on a Winter Night" is in Commonweal, Aug. 6. A poem, "The sent ones", in America, Sept. 25, is by Sister Maris Stella of the College of St. Catherine, St. Paul, Minnesota.
