Dear Faculty Members:

Fontbonne is deeply and sincerely grateful to the teachers of this summer session. We pray that God's blessing and His graces may surround and encompass you so that much good may be accomplished through your generous efforts. In what better way may we show our appreciation and gratitude than by having the Holy Sacrifice, the gift of infinite value, offered for you and for those near and dear to you? Hence, Holy Mass will be yours in St. Joseph's Chapel on the morning of July 20th.

God be with you in this Marian Year of Grace!

Sincerely yours in Christ,

(Signed) SISTER M. MARCELLA, C.S.J.
President, Fontbonne College

FONTBONNE MOTHERS' CLUB GIVES LIGHTED OUTDOOR SIGN

When the students return in September, they will see a new lighted outdoor sign on the front campus, on the middle plot near the sidewalk. This is a gift of the Fontbonne Mothers' Club.

The base is Missouri red granite, which is the same material as that used in the Fontbonne buildings. The sign itself is made of California redwood on which are inscribed the words, "Fontbonne College," in white.

Standing five feet high, the sign was designed by Joseph D. Murphy, Medaille Hall architect.

Sharon, who was the subject of a Font feature early last year, is also employed during the day at the hotel as a life-guard. ## YOUR FONT ROVING REPORTER REPORTS

This is your Font roving reporter bringing you the news of Fontbonne students and alumnae and their summer vacations. To begin with, nine Fontbonnets are becoming "international experts" this summer by taking trips to Europe. The lucky travelers are Eleanor and Catherine Hennigan, Lucy George, Arden Rischbieter, Joy Ann Auer, Carol Von Hoffman, Florence Mae Spack, Margaret Pautler, and Mary Lou Streit. The May 3rd edition of the Font contained the story of all but Joy Ann, Flo Mae, and Carol. Joy Ann is traveling on the liner "United States" and will visit England and the continent. Flo Mae and Carol are both going with relatives, Flo Mae traveling through ten countries for a total trip of 63 days.

Your reporter unearthed twelve Fontbonnets buried in the sandy beaches of Florida! Discovered near the ocean were Nancy Haar, Nancy Davis, Jackie Jokerst, Peggy Hayes, Mary Toenjes, Mike Anderson, and Carol Gutting. "Newshounds" discovered Ann Moore, Eileen Hogan, and Mary Carolyn Reinhardt when they heard screams coming from a motel room. Reason for screams--one big scorpion. Dum da dum dum! Gerry Schmalz was reported seen at Daytona Beach, later found in Miami. Only 21 miles away Sue Kaiser was located in Fort Lauderdale. All twelve were brought to court--conclusion to case--all had a wonderful time.

Californy-bound are Rochelle Nebuloni, Joan Gadd, Pat Dalton, Madeline Givens, Marilyn Bell, and Sue Leach. Madeline and Sue plan to make California their new home.

The cool northern country is attracting many students. Mary McKee is going to Ontario, Canada. Mary Marsh, Sally Joedicke, Jeanne Klemeyer, Loretta Kohler, Carol Giblin, and Carol Keane will spend part or all of their vacations in Michigan. Joan Maschmann, Dot Ensenberger, and Peggy Barnes are enjoying themselves in Wisconsin, or at least Dot and Joan are--Peggy is attending the summer session at Marquette University. Arlene Frank will spend her time and money in Cuba; Joy Pivaronas, in Puerto Rico.

Working and traveling too is Joan Kilbourne who has a job at a summer resort in Michigan for two months.

Traveling quite a distance is Kathleen Madigan who will go by boat to Tokyo, Japan, to meet her parents. She will attend school in Japan next year; then she will return to Fontbonne.

Dorothy Dick will be trying out her Spanish this summer in Mexico. She is going by car through Arizona and Colorado on the way.

Flying to Washington, D.C., is Patricia Saito to see the sights. Sue Bowersox is going to Washington, too, but the state of Washington. She will also attend Northwestern's summer school in Chicago to study physics. Also traveling to Washington (Spokane) is Kathy Boyle. She will visit Chicago, San Francisco, and Oklahoma besides.

The big city (New York) is attracting a few--Suzanne Naes, Kathleen Fahy, and Amy Rossie.

Marilyn Macke likes the wide open spaces and will travel by car to Texas and Arizona.

Margie Vogt will be spending the summer at Camp Wooden Aqua in Ely, Minnesota. Also working as a counselor is Mary Anne Jacobi, who will be at Geneva Glen Camps in Denver, Colorado. She will spend the remainder of her vacation in South Carolina.

North Carolina will see Paddy Bailey; the Dakotas, Clare Dent.

Mississippi will be lucky enough to have Mimi Drake, Audrey Hansman, and Pat Coonan as visitors. Pat will also go to Vincennes, Chicago, Maryland, and New Orleans.

North, east, and west will travel three Fontbonnets. Jeanne Gantner is going north; Janis Edmonds, east; and Martha Priest, west.

Of all the travelers, this last one has the best trip ahead. She is Shirley Clancy who is going on her honeymoon on a bicycle built for two. But don't worry--she has notified us that she will return! And how glad all Fontbonnets will be to see her!

And of course, EVERYBODY will see EVERYBODY at the FOOTBALL GAME, Saturday night, Sept. 11, at Oakland Stadium, when the Philadelphia Eagles and Chicago Cardinals, two of the National Football League's best-known clubs, will give St. Louis fans their ONLY glimpse of big football.

MANY STUDENTS WORKING AND ATTENDING SUMMER SCHOOL

Summer doesn't necessarily mean vacation to a great many Fontbonne students who spend their summers working on jobs and at summer school.

Attending Fontbonne's summer session are Catherine Ditenhafer, Teresa Conway, June Thompson, Margie Kelly, Zoe Striegel, Kay Gunn, Justine Rutkowski, and Maureen Doherty. Carol Brouillette is studying at Vincennes University. Peggy Brendocke, as usual, wants to be different. She is at Maryville tutoring high school students in chemistry and general science and grade schoolers in dramatics and tennis.

St. Mary's Hospital has Mary Lou Maddox working; DePaul Hospital has Janet Toal. Janice Hillner is working in a doctor's office as a receptionist.

Joanne Sutter is spending her vacation swimming whenever she isn't working at American Associate Insurance Company.

Fishing supplies have the interest of Pat Huesman who sells minnows, worms, and crawfish for her father.

Mary Katherine Masa, Judy Curry, Margaret Bransford, Betty Ann Neuf, Marion Wyers, Pat Degnan, and Regina McGahan are doing playground work. Pat says that she is a real mean teacher. We bet!

Mary Lou Miller is another counselor. She is at Camp Sar of the Sea and Camp CYO at Pere Marquette State Park in Illinois.

Banking interests both Janice Jun and Bernadette Buchman, who are working at banks in Alton, Illinois, and Shelbyville, Missouri, respectively.

Famous-Barr has Nancy Hines and Judy Giles working hard, while Scruggs-Vandervoort Tea Room is using Mary Deck's dietetic talents. Working for Famous Southtown is Pat Tansey, who is on their College Fashion Board.

Sharon Kelly is doing dramatic work in summer theatres in Champaign, Illinois, her home town.

HERE AND THERE WITH THE CLASS OF '64

Also planning to teach in the fall is Shirley Reising. She will have the fifth grade at the Buder School in the Ritenour School District.

Doris Gibbons will become an intern at St. John's Hospital in the School of Medical Technology here in St. Louis, and Thelma DeLisle will be a dietetic intern at Charity Hospital in New Orleans. Also beginning dietetic internships are Jeanne Schock and Suzanne Leontsinis. Suzanne will intern at Barnes Hospital in St. Louis, and Jeanne will be at the University of Chicago Clinics.

Rowena Reynolds is going to work towards her second year of graduate work in psychiatric social work at the George Warren Brown School of Social Work in St. Louis.

FONTBONNE WILL SPONSOR SECOND ANNUAL PROFESSIONAL FOOTBALL GAME,
SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, AT OAKLAND STADIUM

The Philadelphia Eagles and Chicago Cardinals, two of the National Football League's best-known clubs, will give St. Louis fans their only glimpse of big-time football Saturday night, Sept. 11, at Oakland Stadium. Unlike last year's duel between the New York Giants and Baltimore Colts, the Eagles-Cardinals' battle figures to be a wide-open, high-scoring contest, as both teams, heading down the home-stretch of their training campaign, pull out all the stops to reach a peak for the opening of the regular season.

Both clubs are loaded with stars--the Cards with such stand-outs as California's Johnny Olszewski and Georgia's Charley Trippi, the latter starting his eighth campaign with the Chicagoans, now being led by Coach Jumbo Joe Stydahar. Trippi, playing at the unfamiliar--for him--position of quarterback, scored only 12 points during a sad '53 season, but he led the N.F.L. in punt returns, which always brings the fans to their feet as a ball-carrier threads his way through opponents down the field. Trippi caught 21 punts and returned them 239 yards for an average return of 11.4 yards.

The Eagles, coached by youthful Jim Trimble, formerly of Wichita, were the third-highest-scoring team in the major leagues a year ago. Only San Francisco (372) and Los Angeles (366) outscored the Philly eleven (352), which was led by End Bobby Walston. The 6-foot, 185-point Walston, fourth in individual point-making, tallied 87 points. Only Gordon Soltau (114), Alex Groza (108), and Doak Walker (93) scored more points than Walston. Other Eagle stars who will be on display here include Al Pollard, former Army star; Notre Dame's Neil Worden; Tony Rados, former Penn State standout; Adrian Burk of Baylor, the league's third-best punter. Burk averaged an even 43 yards a boot for 41 kicks. Pete Pihos of Indiana is another Eagle star. Trippi was fourth with a 42.9 average in punting.

Chicago, which defeated the Bears for their only '53 victory, figures to be among the Western Division's best next season with, as mentioned, such fine players as Olszewski, Trippi, George Summerall, Bobby Cross, Fran Nagler, Don Paul, Bud Ramsey, and No. 1 draftee, Lamar McHan of Arkansas.

Proceeds of the game will go to Fontbonne College and St. Joseph's Academy. Edward Marsh and Joseph P. Holloran, of the Fontbonne College Lay Advisory Board, are the co-chairmen for the game.

Tickets priced at $2, $3, $5, and $10 may be purchased at the Arcade Building Ticket Office. Mrs. E. D. Tenaglia (Alice Cafferata '31) is alumnae chairman.
