

The first event of our Dijon Discussion Series, designed to plant ideas and cultivate dialogue.

The As If Body Loop

by
Ken Weitzman

Aaron: the oldest brother

Sarah: the middle sister

Glenn: the youngest

Attic Lady: their mother

Martin: an angry man

Paul Pagano*

Magan Wiles*

Adam Flores

Eleanor Mullin

Gary Barker*

Narrator:

Phillip Bettison

Director:

Deanna Jent

Technical Director:

Michael Sullivan

The play takes place on and around Christmas, 2002 in Philadelphia, Queens and Manhattan.

There will be one ten-minute intermission

Please join us following the play for a discussion, led by Séan Collins from the pastoral staff of St. Cronin's Church. After our Sunday performance, Séan will be joined by Rabbi James Goodman.

Make plans to join us for the rest of our exciting season:

Remnant, by Ron Reed

Set in the future, a family struggles to celebrate a vaguely remembered holiday: the Christ-mas. The unexpected arrival of a stranger changes the superficial celebration into an exploration of sacrifice and forgiveness.

November 15-18, 23-25 & 29 - December 2, 2007

Measure for Measure by William Shakespeare

Shakespeare's examination of loyalty, the abuse of power and the true nature of justice will be performed in a modern techno-setting with contemporary music and videos.

April 10-13, 17-20, 24-27, 2008

The Unseen, by Craig Wright

The second event in our Dijon Discussion series, this searing play examines the relationship between two prisoners and the source of their eventual salvation.

*MATURE SUBJECT MATTER*

February 23-25, 2008

For further information, call 314-719-8060 or visit www.mustardseedtheatre.com

The Mustard Seed Theatre Staff

Artistic Director: Deanna Jent
Resident Artists: Gary Wayne Barker, Adam Flores
Kelley Ryan, Michael Sullivan
Leslie Wobbe

General Manager: Adam Flores
Business Manager: Michael Sullivan
Box Office/House: Leslie Wobbe
PR Firm: Dramatic License PR, LLC