

Mustard Seed Theatre is a professional theatre company designed to explore our relationship with God and our ethical responsibility to the world.

For tickets or audition information, call Mustard Seed Theatre at 314.719.8060 or visit MustardSeedTheatre.com.

2008 - 2009 Mustard Seed Theatre season information is enclosed! Don't miss:

SMOKE on the MOUNTAIN

written by connie ray

conceived by alan bailey

Oct. 31 – Nov. 16, 2008

Mother Teresa 's Dead

by Helen Edmundson

Dec. 5 – 8, 2008

An Almost HOLY PICTURE

by Heather McDonald

March 6 – 15, 2009

THE GOOD TIMES ARE KILLING ME

by Lynda Barry

April 17 – May 3, 2009

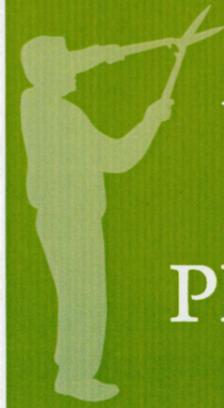

mustard seed
theatre

Fontbonne Fine Arts
6800 Wydown Blvd.
St. Louis, Missouri, 63105-3098

www.mustardseedtheatre.com

Brochure

March 6 – 15, 2009

An Almost HOLY PICTURE

by Heather McDonald

Our first fully-staged one-man show, AN ALMOST HOLY PICTURE, by Heather McDonald, will be presented March 6-15, 2009. Resident Artist Gary Wayne Barker plays Samuel Gentle, a “divinely touched” yet grief-stricken groundskeeper who, through a bizarre string of incidences, is impacted in profound and mysterious ways.

April 17 – May 3, 2009

THE GOOD TIMES ARE KILLING ME

by Lynda Barry

A racially-divided 1962 is the setting for Lynda Barry’s THE GOOD TIMES ARE KILLING ME presented April 17 – May 3, 2009. Featuring music and song from the time period and directed by Deanna Jent, this poignant yet funny drama explores the friendship between Edna who is white and her best friend Bonna who is black; 12 year-olds experiencing puberty, prejudice, rock music and the accelerating civil rights movement on the streets of an ever-changing, blue-collar, urban neighborhood.

2008 - 2009 Season Subscription Information

Nominated for six Kevin Kline Awards (and winner of two) for its inaugural production of REMNANT, Mustard Seed Theatre is a professional theatre company dedicated to exploring our relationship to God and our ethical responsibility to the world. The company hires both Equity and non-Equity performers.

A Subscription to our 2008-2009 season give you tickets for three productions and one staged reading for $50 -- a savings of 25% (like seeing one show for free!). Subscribers have first choice of performance dates and will receive invitations to exclusive events. To reserve your subscription tickets, fill out the information below and mail it to Mustard Seed Theatre. We will call or e-mail you so that you can select your performance dates.

cut along dotted line and return to Mustard Seed Theatre

YES, I want to purchase a season subscription to Mustard Seed Theatre’s 2008 - 2009 Season at $50 per subscription.

_____ Number of Subscriptions

Name _____

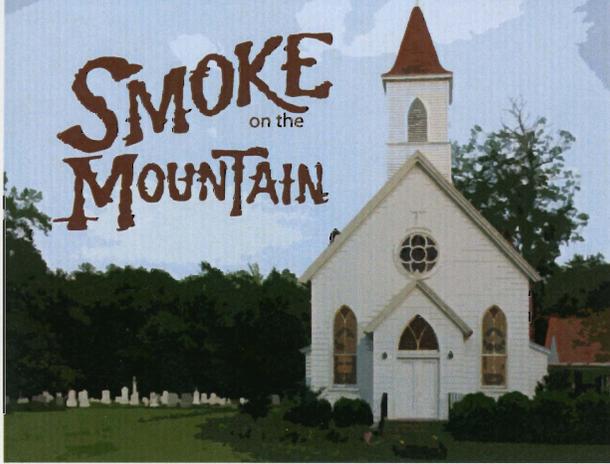

Address _____

Phone _____

Email _____

Mail to: Mustard Seed Theatre, 6800 Wydown Blvd, St. Louis MO 63105-3098

Oct. 31 – Nov. 16, 2008

SMOKE on the MOUNTAIN

written by
connie ray

conceived by
alan bailey

Launching Mustard Seed Theatre's second season is Connie Ray and Alan Bailey's family musical, SMOKE ON THE MOUNTAIN, Oct. 31 – Nov. 16, 2008. Pastor Oglethorpe wants to move his flock into the "modern world" by inviting the Singing Sanders Family to join them for the first ever "Saturday Night Sing." Acting as the congregation, the audience participates in the humor, energetic music and touching personal stories that unfold at Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church in this delightful comedy directed by Mustard Seed Theatre Artistic Director, Deanna Jent

Dec. 5 – 8, 2008

Mother Teresa is Dead

by Helen Edmundson

The Dijon Discussion Series of staged readings designed to plant questions and cultivate dialogue presents MOTHER TERESA IS DEAD, by Helen Edmundson, Dec. 5 – 8, 2008. Directed by Mustard Seed resident artist Gary Wayne Barker, this thought-provoking drama centers on Jane, who leaves her home, her husband and her son to fight for the rights of India's orphaned children while torn between two worlds for which she feels responsible.

Help Mustard Seed Theatre Continue to Grow

SPONSOR OUR STAGED READING

For $1000 you can sponsor our staged reading of Mother Teresa is Dead. Sponsors receive 12 tickets to the reading, preferred seating and their names featured in the program and the lobby.

BUY A CHURCH PEW FOR SMOKE ON THE MOUNTAIN

For $500 a pew will be named for you (and reserved when you attend the production). Pew purchasers will be listed in the "Church Bulletin" and the lobby as special friends of the Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church, the setting of Smoke on the Mountain.

BE A DISCUSSION CHAMPION

Each $100 contribution will underwrite an honorarium for a leader of one of our 16 post-show discussions.

SUPPORT OUR "THEATRE FOR ALL" TICKET FUND

Contributions to this fund will provide tickets to needy members of the St. Louis community in the belief that Theatre should be available to all.

PROVIDE RICH SOIL FOR THE FURTHER GROWTH OF MUSTARD SEED THEATRE

Contributions to our general fund help us pay our artists, build our sets, sew our costumes and continue to provide the excellent theatrical experiences you've come to expect from us.

cut along dotted line and return to Mustard Seed Theatre

YES, I want to help Mustard Seed Theatre grow. Enclosed is my tax-deductible contribution for the following amount: _____ Staged Reading ($1000) _____ Church Pew ($500)

_____ Discussion Champion ($100) _____ THEATRE FOR ALL ticket fund _____ General Fund

Name _____

Address _____

Phone _____

Email _____

Mail to: Mustard Seed Theatre, 6800 Wydown Blvd, St. Louis MO 63105-3098

SMOKE on the MOUNTAIN

written by
connie ray

conceived by alan bailey

Oct. 31 – Nov. 16, 2008

Mother Teresa 's Dead

by Helen Edmundson

Dec. 5 – 8, 2008

An Almost HOLY PICTURE

by Heather McDonald

March 6 – 15, 2009

THE GOOD TIMES ARE KILLING ME

by Lynda Barry

April 17 – May 3, 2009

2008 - 2009 Season

mustard seed
theatre