Program for special fundraiser at The Royale

Dear friends of Mustard Seed Theatre,

Thank you joining us this afternoon for Mustard Seed Theatre's first-ever fundraiser, Smoke on the Royale Mountain. This summer, an angel in the audience approached us after one of our shows and said she was moved by our production, believed in our mission to "create engaging theatre that explores our relationship with God and our ethical responsibility to the world" and inspired to help.

She joined creative forces with some imaginative and inspired friends, and with the generosity of many people, created the event you are enjoying today. We are so thankful for every single person who has and is contributing to this event -- it helps us bring more resources to our creation of thought-provoking, high-quality theatre. Your support is important and means so much!

We are so glad to have you share your afternoon with us at this Sunday afternoon social. Please join us later this month for Smoke on the Mountain, at Mustard Seed's Theatre in the Fine Arts Building at Fontbonne University.

XOXOX,

Deanna Jent
Founder and Artistic Director

"first ever Saturday Night Sing". Pastor Oglethorpe is determined to move his flock into the "modern world", by inviting the Singing Sanders Family to join him. They sing vintage gospel and bluegrass favorite tunes like "Church in the Wildwood," "Wonderful Time Up There" and "I'll Fly Away." You will hear hilarious stories from the more - or less - devout members of the Sanders family. This show is for audiences of all ages. We hope you will pull up a pew and join Mustard Seed Theatre for a rollicking good time at Smoke on the Mountain! For info, visit www.mustardseedtheatre.com
