CETL WRITER'S WORKSHOP

Have you been writing an article, book, or anything in between, that you are struggling to find time for? Or are you in a rut with your writing? If so, join the CETL for an informational meeting about a 5-week series that we will be starting soon. If you have not participated in a CETL Writer's Workshop, I encourage you to talk to colleagues that have! You will be amazed how much you can accomplish in 5 weeks. Attend this meeting to learn more.
