Register Today: "Our Intersecting Selves" Workshop and Performance

Students are encouraged to join the LACE Center on September 11, 2020 for an afternoon (11AM-2PM) workshop and performance titled "Our Intersecting Selves: Exploring Diversity, Identity, Equity and Inclusion." This interactive workshop will be hosted by spoken word poet and author, Carlos Andrés Gómez, and will explore how our intersecting social identities impact how each of us experiences the world. We will interrogate historical legacies of structural inequity and the unearned privilege and access that accompany it. Moreover, we will investigate the ways in which some identities enable us to wield unearned structural power, while others, simultaneously, make us susceptible to systemic and interpersonal discrimination. Using history, intersectionality, and personal experience as frames for discussion, participants will collectively explore these and other concepts. Questions may be sent to Dr. Janelle Julian, James Williams, or Joel Hermann. Click this link to register by 9/9/2020.
