CAREER CORNER

Fontbonne University Presents Exhibition on the Life and World Legacy of Mahatma Gandhi

Fontbonne University presents “My Life is My Message,” an exhibition commissioned by the Mahatma Gandhi Center in St. Louis (www.gandhicerterstlouis.org) celebrating the 150th anniversary of Gandhi’s birth (October 2, 1869).

The exhibition presents the story of Gandhi’s life, education, major achievements, and global influence on leaders such as Martin Luther King, Jr., Malala, and Greta Thornberg. The genius of Gandhi was his very specific and relevant marches, in which he insisted on peaceful behavior and words. The exhibition presents a timeline of Gandhi’s life and special features on his Satyagrahas (peaceful protests exemplifying the force of truth), Constructive Programs for the poor, the “Quit India” Movement for independence, the Dandi Salt March against unfair taxation, his writings and publications, and the men and women who worked along with him to achieve human rights and India’s independence.

The exhibition is on view in the Jack C. Taylor Library at Fontbonne University October 2 – December 1, 2020.

LIVING OUR MISSION

Amongst these challenging times, we must continue to live our mission and serve thy dear neighbor.

Volunteer From Home: There are volunteer-from-home opportunities (such as reading newspapers for individuals who are visually-impaired, writing grants, creating websites, calling isolated senior citizens, etc.) which can be found at <https://www.stlvolunteer.org/volunteerfromhome>. The United Way continues to update this site as more organizations are offering virtual volunteer opportunities. If a Fontbonne Community member does not already have an STLvolunteer account, the attached document describes how to sign up!

Pause for Peace: Campus Ministry is continuing the "Pause for Peace" program via social media and email. We invite people to spend 1 min in silence to reflect on internal, local, national, and international peace from noon - 12:01 on Mondays.

Mass: Join us for Sunday Mass each week at 7PM in the Doerr Chapel. Masks and Social Distancing are required.

Prayer during this Difficult Time: Holy One, I need You in this time of turmoil. I ask that You would grant me that peace that surpasses understanding. I need that kind of peace that rules over my mind and heart despite the fear I experience due to the pandemic and the intense social unrest. I know I cannot go through all of this on my own, and I know that with You, nothing is impossible. Always remind me that You are always there beside me, Holy One wherever I am and whatever comes my way.
