

The Bosnia Memory Project at Fontbonne University is honored to announce that

Hasan Nuhanović

Author and Advocate for Justice

is the

2019 Recipient of the Civic Courage Award for courageous commitment to the civic values of respect, equality, and pluralism that represent the best traditions of Bosnia-Herzegovina

A survivor of the 1995 genocide in Srebrenica, Bosnia-Herzegovina, Hasan Nuhanović has worked tirelessly for twenty-three years to bring truth to the world and justice to Srebrenica's victims. Through civil, criminal, and international courts as well as through his writing, Mr. Nuhanović continues "to ensure that Bosnia is able to move on and face the future, while acknowledging its tragic past" (Holocaust Memorial Day Trust). He is the author of Under the UN Flag: The International Community and the Srebrenica Genocide (DES, 2007) and The Last Refuge: A True Story of War, Survival and Life Under Siege in Srebrenica (Peter Owen Publishers, 2019).
