DEDICATION

Holy Spirit, Lord of Light
From the clear celestial height
Thy pure beaming radiance give.
. . . . .

Come, thou Father of the poor
Come with treasures which endure
Come, thou Light of all that live!
. . . . .

Thou, on us who evermore
Thee confess and thee adore,
With thy sevenfold gifts descend.

Sequence from Pentecost

It doesn't seem possible, but we've finally made it. Yes, it's now four years since those first bewildered days when the common question was, "Which way is Fine Arts" Four years since the gruelling placement tests. We've lived through workshops and registrations, four of those memorable College Days with the stuck zippers and the parades (some in the rain) which had to pass St. Louis U. between classes. There have been Homecomings, Christmas Parties in the Ryan Den, Mardi Gras Dances, Father-Daughter Banquets, hours of learning note-taking in Humanities, exams, term papers, and ultimately more exams. We've seen "Bombshells in Blue," the erection of the new statue of Our Lady in the Horseshoe Drive, the Fuzzy Wuzzies at Homecoming, the Shillalahs at the St. Pat's Dance, and our mannequin selling balloons "Up in Central Park." In this last wonderful year we've sold blue and white blazers, lost hours of sleep during the "Pirates" rehearsals, earned the coveted keys, played in the basketball intramurals, enjoyed the Junior Prom, Penny Circus, and Skip Day, but not the "comps" and theses. Now there is just graduation left when we'll finally turn those black, straggly tassels and say, "So long! It's been great!"
