

Skating Party Tonight

Vol. XII—No. 2

Mary Mitchell Gets Leading Role In Drama

Miss Belle Mullins Will Direct "Pride and Prejudice," Footlights' Offering.

Mary Mitchell, junior resident student from Kansas City, has been cast in the coveted role of "Elizabeth," main character in the play, Pride and Prejudice. A graduate of St. Teresa's Academy, Mary was initiated into the Footlights Club this fall, and belongs to the Sodality of Our Lady.

Tuesday, Nov. 22, is the date for this first Footlights Club presentation of the year; it will be directed by Miss Belle Mullins, head of the department of speech and dramatic art.

The story of Pride and Prejudice revolves around the Bennett family and the attempts of the aspiring mother to win husbands for her three beautiful daughters. Eunice Burtt, club president, as Jane; Dorothy Coff as Lydia, and Elizabeth interpret the roles of the daughters. Jean Hines plays an imposing Mrs. Bennett, with Mary Tracy playing Mr. Bennett.

Cast As Suitors

Catherine Aylward impersonates the sophisticated Mr. Darcy, who is Elizabeth's suitor, contrasting with Rosemary Hayden as congenial Mr. Bingley. The third suitor of the girls is Ann Jedlicka, who plays Mr. Wickham, the villain of the story. Joy Locke has the character role of the pompous Lady Catherine de Bourgh.

Other members of the cast include: Virginia Salla, Mary Cannon, Virginia Lee Cafferata, Doris O'Connor, Julia Saab, Rosemary Murphy, Lucille Donnelly, Helen Schenk, Mary Margaret Shackelford, Mary Jane Helm, Helen Dillon, Betty Sturrock and Rita Cook.

Gay Victorian Drama

This youthful and gay play of nineteenth century England is adapted by Helen Jerome from the novel of the same name by Jane Austen, critic of life and manners. Elizabeth Bennett meets Mr. Darcy and is not impressed with his unconcerned and blase manner. He in turn seems to think that this country miss is not sufficiently attractive to tempt him into being interested in her. How these two people finally become interested in each other, how a premature offer of marriage is spurned, and how at last goes on the heroine's prejudice fades and the hero's pride disappears make the story a vital and colorful one.

The characters represent many foolish or disagreeable people, as well as some interesting and pleasant ones. Everyone belongs to the upper class of society; the men have ample incomes and the ladies abundant leisure. Mrs. Bennett, Lady Catherine de Bourgh, and Mr. Collins are only three of the actors who are mercilessly portrayed; and everything works with a sure touch and a fine irony to make a well rounded whole.

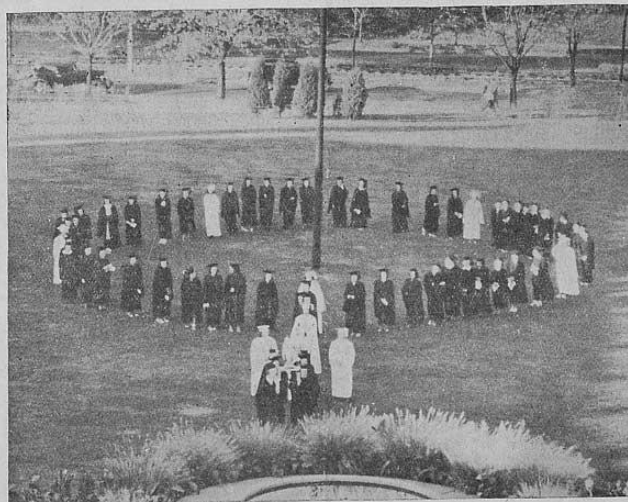

THE FONT

FONTBONNE COLLEGE, ST. LOUIS, MO.

Forty Hours' Devotion

Friday, October 28, 1938

Sodalists Form Animated Rosary

A view from the Ryan Hall Library of the animated rosary formed by the Sodality of Our Lady here for the success of the recent New Orleans Eucharistic Congress. Students dressed in white caps and gowns represented the Crucifix, Credo and "Paternosters," while others in black garb depicted the "Ave Marias." The rest of the students recited the answers of the prayers.

Editors Attend Press Convention For Collegians

Associate Collegiate Press Conference Will Be Held
In Cincinnati At Hotel Gibson.

Angela Hannagan, editor-in-chief, and Ann Jedlicka, associate editor of the Font, will attend the Seventeenth Annual Associate Collegiate Press Convention, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Nov. 3, 4 and 5. They will represent Fontbonne College at this conference, scheduled to assist editors in making better newspapers. The Hotel Gibson, in Cincinnati, Ohio, will be headquarters.

Raymond Clapper, famous Washington columnist and commentator and president of the Washington newspapermen's Gridiron Club, will deliver the principal address, "Confessions of a Washington Columnist." Also, E. Ross Bartley, former Associated Press White House correspondent, is to discuss "Twenty Years of Public Relations," and there will be a lengthy round table program.

The delegates are to be entertained Friday evening, Nov. 4, at a convention banquet and a dance in the hotel ballroom. The convention will reach a finale with the delegates as guests of the University of Cincinnati at their football game vs. Ohio Wesleyan, Saturday afternoon.

The representatives will return Sunday evening, Nov. 6.

Rev. Owen F. Dudley Lectures On "With English Motor Chapel"

"With the Motor Chapel in England" is the subject chosen by Reverend Owen Francis Dudley for his address to the students at the weekly assembly, Monday, Oct. 31, at 12:30 p. m.

Author of five best sellers, Will Men Be Like Gods? The Masterful Monk, Pageant of Life, The Coming of the Monster, The Shadow on the Earth, Father Dudley is also a columnist for the London Daily Mirror and superior general of the Catholic Missionary Society of England. Throughout Wales and England and even in New Zealand and Australia, Father Dudley has driven his famous motor mission from city to city and hamlet to hamlet, daily and nightly addressing throngs gathered in the streets and market places.

This is Father Dudley's first visit to the United States. Becoming a Catholic in 1914, Father Dudley was born in Yorkshire, England, May 24, 1882, and was ordained an Anglican minister in 1909. He was wounded in the World War, serving as chaplain on the French and Italian fronts.

Delta Phi Kid Party Will Honor Pledges

Delta Phi pledges will be entertained at a Kid Party, Nov. 10, at 7:30 p. m. Various committees have been appointed by Olga Grellner, general chairman. In charge of refreshments are Mary Margaret Nelson, Ann Swanger and Karleen Hartman. Decorations will be taken care of by June Schaefer and Mae Dufaux; entertainment, Lillian Carney and Kay Diech.

The Art Club will assist the Home Economics Club in its charity project of stuffing rag dolls and making toys for poor children.

Homecoming Leaders Name Committees

Third Annual Affair Given
By Mothers and Fathers'
Clubs Complete
Arrangements.

Plans are progressing rapidly for the Third Annual Fontbonne Homecoming, which will be held Saturday afternoon and evening, Nov. 5.

William J. Costello, president of the Fathers' Club, and Mrs. Aloysius Houlehn, president of the Mothers' Club, are general co-chairmen. Assisting them are a number of committees. Mrs. John E. Riley, chairman of the supper committee, has as co-workers Mrs. T. O. Hall, Mrs. Henry Kersting, Mrs. J. A. Purcell, Mrs. Stephen Tammany, Mrs. Theodore Harder, Mrs. A. J. Noble, Mrs. D. F. Coleman, Mrs. Mark Donnelly, Mrs. S. K. Anson, Mrs. James Mackin, Mrs. H. B. Wells, Mrs. Wm. Kraus, Mrs. J. O. Holton, Mrs. Thomas Ward and Mrs. A. J. Moyle. Cooperating with Mrs. D. J. Hanneff, who is chairman of the cake committee, are Mrs. H. Badaracco, Mrs. L. Siegfried and Mrs. N. H. Davis. Mrs. W. Costello, who is in charge of the card party, will be aided by Mrs. J. Foerster, Mrs. A. Auler, Mrs. W. Ward, Mrs. J. Hawk, Mrs. E. Dillon, Mrs. P. Holden, Mrs. G. Heneghan, Mrs. A. Betz and Mrs. A. Diech. In charge of publicity are Mrs. J. O. Holton and Stephen Tammany.

Many beautiful and valuable attendance prizes have already been donated.

Cards will be played both in the afternoon and evening in the gym. Supper will be served in the cafeteria from 5:00 to 7:00 p. m. Tickets, which are selling for 50 cents, are now on sale at the Bursar's office.

Father Lord Will Review Carroll's Play

"Shadow and Substance" Chosen by
Speaker for Assembly,
November 7.

Reverend Daniel A. Lord, S.J., editor of the Queen's Work and organizer of the Sodality of Our Lady in the United States, will review one of the current successes on Broadway, Shadow and Substance, at the student assembly, Nov. 7.

Shadow and Substance, written by a thirty-eight year old Glasgow slum teacher, Paul Vincent Carroll, deals with the Ireland of today. Much of the wit and humor of that country is found in this play. This is one of the finest plays that has come out of Ireland since Juneteenth and the Paycock and The Plough and the Stars.

The action is centered around Canon Skerrit, a classicist, and Dermot O'Flingsley, a schoolmaster, who have similar ideas regarding Irish education and the workaday Irish clergy. O'Flingsley writes a book savagely attacking education and the clergy. When it is discovered that he is the author of the book, he is discharged and a very incapable relative of the Canon's is employed in his place. Both men are in love with the Canon's Irish servant, Bridgid. Each recognizes the bright beauty of Bridgid's faith and only she can see behind the defensive sarcasm of the Schoolmaster and Canon. Bridgid meets with a tragic death when she rushes out in front of the crowd to try to prevent them from stoning O'Flingsley to death after the townspeople discover that he is the author of the book.

Mr. Carroll's story, according to some critics, does not make his play stand out from that of other dramatists, but his characterization does. His exposition of the Canon is both subtle and powerful, ironic and mordant. The Canon possesses

(Continued on Page 3, Col. 1.)

Fontbonne Holds Formal Opening Of Forty Hours

Ceremonies Will Close On Sunday, Feast Of Christ
The King.

The annual forty hours' devotion will be formally opened Friday, Oct. 28, at a Solemn High Mass at 6:00. High Mass will be celebrated Saturday at 6:30, and Sunday at 7:00. The ceremonies will close Sunday, Oct. 30, the feast of Christ the King, at benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament. All the Masses will be said by the chaplain, Reverend John J. Taucher, C.M.

The Sodality of Our Lady urges each of the students to sign up for 15 minutes' adoration in the chapel. Hope Davis, chairman of the Eucharistic committee and vice-president of the Sodality, is in charge. She will be assisted by June Schaefer and Anne Swanger.

This is the thirteenth year that forty hours' devotion has been celebrated at Fontbonne.

Owen F. Dudley

THE FONT

Published semi-monthly during the scholastic year at
FONTBONNE COLLEGE
Wydown and Big Bend Blvds.
St. Louis, Missouri

EDITOR-IN-CHIEF.....ANGELA HANNAGAN
ASSISTANT EDITOR.....MARY JANE HELM
ASSOCIATE EDITOR.....ANN JEDLIKA
MANAGING EDITOR.....MARIAN CLARK
COLUMN EDITOR.....DOROTHY COFF
BUSINESS MANAGER.....LUCILLE DONNELLY
ADV. MANAGER.....ROSEMARY MURPHY
CIRCULATION MANAGER.....MARIE ARENA
Reporters: Kay Diech, Kay Plynt, Rosemary
McCarthy, Virginia Mackey, Beverly Krause,
Mary Concannon, Helen Martin, Nedra Haas,
Bernice Stubbak, Clotilde Betra, Dorothy
Barada, Mary Sanders, Eunice Burt, Mary
Margaret Potts, Catherine Rozier.

Member of Associate Collegiate Press.

Holy Souls

Think of them! Thousands and thousands pleading and calling for succour and deliverance. Our Lady and all the court of Heaven ceaselessly seek mercy for them at the throne of God, but each and every creature in that suffering mass has offended the Infinite Majesty; this must be their reparation. Only this? Ah, no! We, too, can help, for God awaits and listens and hears those whispered petitions from the Church Militant, asking for the Church Suffering the assistance which it cannot give itself. Look to the future! You may be there yourself some day! Do unto others as you would have them do unto you!

Student Government

There seems to be no subject on which such a broad range of ideas is found than that of Student Government, and the instrument of such government, the Student Council. Conceptions of what a Student Council is and is not shade from the sublime to the ridiculous, from idiosyncrasy to intelligence. The most popular misconceptions are that a Student Council is a substitute for school administration, a Supreme Court, a robot of the faculty, or the unpaid assistant of the janitorial staff, a secret society, a spying system, a figurehead, or a spasmodic organization—here this year and gone the next. In reality, a Student Council performs one of the most important functions in college life in preparing the student for living. It is a training in democracy and co-operation, a development of citizenship, and a laboratory of parliamentary procedure. It is a builder of school spirit and morale, of wholesome alumni spirit, and a high sense of school honor. It aims to develop exceptional scholarship instead of routine scholarship. It is a training in leadership and a unifier of the numerous activities of a school. It is an agency for social life among students, for developing intelligent voters, and a balance in extra-curricular activities. It interprets the school to the public. If we, the students, can formulate a correct view of the purpose and activity of the Student Council, we shall be able to give both our moral and material support to its efforts, without which it could do nothing.

Catholic Women Laud Fontbonne Alumna

Editor's Note: The following letter was recently read. In the hope of stimulating Fontbonne students to continue the good work, we print the communication addressed to Miss Jane McLaughlin, who was graduated last year from Fontbonne. She won, in a competitive examination, the Glennon Scholarship to the National Catholic School of Social Service, Washington, D. C. The St. Louis Archdiocesan Council of Catholic Women awarded the scholarship, a two-year course, the completion of which merits the degree of master of arts in sociology.

Recipients of the scholarship prior to Miss McLaughlin were Miss Helen Marie Colman, 1935-37; Miss Catherine Delaney, 1933-35, both Fontbonne alumnae.

The letter follows:

Dear Miss McLaughlin:

Our Board has been informed by Reverend Lucian L. Lauerman, Director of the National Catholic School of Social Service, that you had made an excellent record during the past year at their school and recommend your receiving the Glennon Scholarship for the coming year.

We are very happy to receive such an encouraging report and to be able to extend to you this scholarship for the completion of your course. In doing so, we also offer every good wish for your continued progress and success.

Cordially,
COUNCIL OF
CATHOLIC WOMEN,
Margaret W. McMahon,
(Mrs. Daniel J. McMahon)
President.

Library Receives Sets Of Excavation Books

Based On Archaeological Surveys
And Excavation Memoirs,
Books Comprise 19 Volumes.

The library during the past week has been the recipient of two sets of books from the Egypt Exploration Society, Manchester Square, London. Based on archaeological survey and excavation memoirs, these books are composed of 19 volumes and are now being used by the classes in ancient philosophy, ancient history and Egyptian art.

Excavation Memoirs

7. The City of Onias and the Mound of the Jew.
8. Bubastis.
10. The Festival Hall of Osorkon II.
11. Ahnas el Medineh.
12. Deir el Bahari. Introductory.
13. Deir el Bahari. Part I.
14. Deir el Bahari. Part II.
15. Deshasheh.
16. Abydos I.
17. Ehnasya.
18. Roman Ehnasya.
19. Predynastic Cemetery at el Mahasna.
20. The Eleventh Dynasty Temple at Deir el Bahari. Part II.
21. The Eleventh Dynasty Temple at Deir el Bahari. Part III.

Archaeological Survey

9. The Mastaba of Ptahhetep and Akhetetep. Part II.
10. The Rock Tombs of Sheikh Said.
11. The Rock Tombs of Deir el Gebrawi. Part I.
12. The Rock Tombs of Deir el Gebrawi. Part II.

America's First University

Austin, Tex. (ACP)—Contrary to popular belief the first university in America was not Harvard. Nor was Baylor U. the first institution of higher learning west of the Mississippi.

For exactly 85 years before John Harvard endowed his dream school in Cambridge in 1638, some of the more ambitious Spanish explorers and educators founded the University of Mexico. This little school opened its doors in 1553.

At this time, which was very few years after Hernando Cortez crushed the tottering Aztec empire, a flourishing civilization existed in Mexico. Scholars and writers had begun to come over from the old world, and the first textbook in philosophy to be written in America was used in the new university.

This was titled, "Recognito Summularum." Fray Alonso de la Veracruz, a Franciscan, was the author. Veracruz also wrote two other textbooks for use in the school. They were "Dialectica Resolutio cum textu Aristotelianum," logic with an Aristotelian text, and "Physica Speculatio," an explanation of Newton's law of gravitation. The first two appeared in 1554, and the latter in 1557. All were printed, one page at a time, on a crude block printing press, which was the most modern in all Mexico at that time.

Another of the books used was a Latin grammar by Francisco Cervantes de Salazar, the first rhetoric teacher in North America. Its title was "Comentaria in Ludovici Vives Exercitationes Lingua Latinae." Also appearing in 1554 this book is interesting for the hints it gives concerning the teachers, their character and grading systems.

Strangely enough, though each of these volumes is nearly four centuries old, a copy of each has been preserved and exists today in the University of Texas library here.

When you
Started this
You thought
It was
A poem

By now
You see
You are Mistaken

Isn't it funny
How people will Continue to read
When they know
They are being Fooled!

(ACP)—At least one U. S. college instructor is trying to make life easy for today's undergraduates.

It's Mrs. Florence C. Rose, Director of Remedial Reading Work at Smith College, who recently gave the following rules for fast reading to Columbia University students:

1. Don't pronounce the words you are reading either audibly or inaudibly.
2. Try to grasp the meaning from the printed word rather than from the sound of the word.
3. Read by phrases rather than word by word. Do not look at each word individually.
4. To skim, let your eyes zigzag across the page, reading some of the words, not all of them, and slowing down on parts of special interest.
5. Read the topic sentences, the introductory and concluding paragraphs, and points in italics carefully. Skim the other sections.

Flash

Greetings, all you stoogents, into the open arms and closed fists of ye great institution. This column is dedicated to the freshmen, because goodness only knows when they will get another dedication. We like the elephant, never forget—seems like a vague feeling of something or other "flashes" over one when one thinks of the Locke, McGuire, Mackey faction waking people up with, "What you doing, kid?"—and we, just sleepin'. Catherine Aylward was thinking of climbing out of said transom when she was indefinitely locked in her room one a. m.—think it would fit?

Jo-baby Beckley, the little miss from Wyoming, burnt Tom's picture just because he'd forgotten to scribe her a small epistle. She says now that she's interested in meeting "someone new and difficult." Flash—Helen Martin causes riot, stays in on Friday night! Just can't learn to go to rest at 10:30. Certain Georgia boarders were heard gnashing teeth when every-one exercised her vocal power with "Marching Thru Georgia."

I'm still all atwitter over the Press Club ball last Thursday nite. So are the various Press Club members who managed calmly to win all the prizes—wow!! Dracula's daughter caused a few dozen nightmares, and one even saw Frankenstein. M. Mitchell appeared the next day looking a little black around the eye. Could her "worm has turned, I've eaten enough pears" speech have had a backfire?

Hope Davis has now entered her second childhood and manages to play Lemonade, A Tisket A Tasket, and such. And then, since when are rhinestone hair clips and velvet dresses the attire for football games—is the style changing? The Kansas City girls seem to be the dramatists of the lot (they think)—all of them happening to be in "Pride and Prejudice."

"Pudgy" Procter's new theme song—"I'll go out with him if Larry goes along." And then she two-timed us and went home to see Chicago Jack; Jacks from Chicago are numerous, we hear. Well, no news is good news. Just mention

One of Sister St. Paul's latest quips to her unsuspecting Spanish class goes as follows: A poor beggar took his letter of introduction which told of his deafness to a Priest. The Priest musingly said, "So, you don't hear at all?" and the man quickly replied, "No, Father, not at all." Rosemary Ward actually laughed, I hear. M. U. George wrote a letter to his aunt, addressing it to a Miss Antonette Krock and using his own address—must be love!

Rosemary (Rhett Butler) McCarthy, in her masculine attire, after the costume ball remarked, "Wonder if my nose is shiny?" and proceeded to dust off her proboscis, taking care not to soil her mustache—some cutie-pie! Speaking of amusing incidents, M. Rozier dated an unknown fellow named Girtyley. As Miss Rozier forgets names easily, she heard someone shout, "Hey, Girtyley!" and innocently answered, "Who, me?"

Last senior tea day, Charlotte Bussmann brought a lovely tablecloth for the table, not speaking to Mama about confiscating the family property for dear ol' Fontbonne. Then there appeared a perfectly lovely picture in the paper showing the cloth, oh too well! Which reminds me of the teacher who said, "I shall now illustrate what I have in mind," as she erased the blackboard.

Well, I must be off to purchase me a bullet-proof vest . . .

Rev. Thos. Gavan-Duffy Tells Of Crusade In India Foreign Mission

Assembly Speaker Has Spent Life In Advocating The Education Of Natives As Catechists.

After hearing Reverend Thomas Gavan-Duffy speak in assembly last Monday, your correspondent decided that he would be an interesting subject for an interview. After a lengthy pursuit he was found in the parlor and quickly approached.

He is the son of Sir Charles Gavan, English baronet, and was born in France in 1888. His education was received variously in France, England, Ireland and Mexico. At that time there was no American or Irish Foreign Mission Society, so he joined the Paris branch.

Father's whole concern has been with the native laymen in India with the Catechists, who make the majority of conversions. The Medical Missionaries do not seem to do as well as the Catechists because the latter, who live with their families, work from the inside.

About 95 per cent of the people in India are peasants and "stay at home and like it," having no contact with the outside world. They are economically affected as to the price of rice, or even iron for their implements, but the main thought in their fertile brains appears to be the question whether or not it will rain or shine tomorrow. When asked if they minded the great European troubles, Father replied that they had probably not even heard of them.

Fontbonne Hockey Team Meets Monticello, Nov. 19

The scene of the first out-of-town match for the hockey team will be in Godfrey, Ill., Nov. 19. Monticello College will be the opponent. After the game the team will be entertained by the Monticello squad with a supper in the Cabin.

The date for the Maryville game has been set for Sunday, Nov. 13, at 10:00 a. m. in Forest Park.

No definite dates have been set for the basketball games, although tentative plans have been made to play Maryville, Webster, Monticello, Y. W. H. A., University City and other squads.

Practice is held every Monday at 3:20 p. m. for hockey, and at the same time every Wednesday for basketball.

Father Lord Will Review Carroll's Play

(Continued from Page 1, Col. 5.)

a grand manner and yet he is infinitely real. The weakness and strength of both Canon Sherritt and Dermot O'Flingsley are fairly shown.

This play has had a long run in New York and the critics have given it only the highest praise.

During the last five years, the natives of India have been very favorably inclined to religion and have been changed into a very religious people. Surprisingly, Father Gavan-Duffy reports that almost all the missions there have waiting lists of prospective converts. His mission, located on the east coast, is Tindivanam, South Arcot, India.

As the speaker was creating an interest in the Foreign Missions in his talk, he gave one special message to the Fontbonne students—"The only way to achieve anything along the Missionary line is through a multitude of well trained Catechists." He has spent his whole life preaching this doctrine. There are 500 Catechists at his mission, whose pay amounts to $5.00 a month. Most missions do not have them because of this cost. With this parting adage, Reverend Thomas Gavan-Duffy wended his way from Fontbonne, leaving us with new knowledge of our Foreign Missions.

Sodalists Meet for Day of Recollection

The Sodality Union will meet for a Day of Recollection, Sunday, Oct. 30, at Webster College. Reverend Robert Case, S.J., moderator of the Sodality, will open the program at 10:00 a. m. At numerous talks throughout the day, the qualities that a Sodality leader should possess will be clearly defined.

Dinner will be served at 12:00 o'clock noon, after which the lectures will continue. At 3:00 p. m., there will be a Sodality Union meeting. Plans for the coming year will be discussed.

The Sodality officers and Spiritual Councils of the corporate colleges of St. Louis University, including the hospital unit, are invited. All others who are interested in the ideals and work of the Sodality will be welcome. The members of the Spiritual Council at Fontbonne who will attend are: Hope Davis, Kay Disch, June Schafer, Anne Swanger, Mary Jane Helm, Joy Locke, Angela, Hannagan, Marian Clark, Betty King, Mae Dufaux, Mary Margaret Nelson, Catherine Knaapen, Lucille Donnelly, Kay Desmond, Geraldine Dugan, Mary Rita Wahlert, Betty Sutherland and Mary Wand. Betty Sturrock, prefect of the Sodality, is making plans for the participation of the Fontbonne unit in the Day of Recollection.

KINDLY
PATRONIZE
OUR ADVERTISERS

Compliments of
JOHN M. CRUTSINGER
ST. LOUIS COUNTY SURVEYOR
and
HIGHWAY ENGINEER

All students must have their photographs taken for the Senior Edition of the Font before Tuesday, Nov. 15. Appointments must be made before the date on which photograph is taken.

Photographer chosen by the seniors is the Ashen-Brenner Studio, located at 4050 Lindell boulevard, Newstead 2110.

Walking Contradiction Is Modern College Man

Minneapolis, Oct. 25 (ACP)—When it comes to describing the college man of 1938, so many and varied are the paragraphic portrayals that he is at once a master-mind and a dolt, a play-boy and a great student. None has so brilliantly painted the picture as Kent State University's Dean, R. E. Manchester, who sets the man-of-the-campus on his pedestal in the following manner:

"The college man is a living paradox. Most people cannot understand him, and those who do come to their conclusions by indirect proof. He talks of the future but worships the past. He is liberal in his conversation but conservative in his action. He is radical in his opinions on politics, but elects stand-patters to the class offices. He demands freedom of thinking but defends with all his strength the traditions of his institution. He takes wild stands on religious theories, yet he attends colleges and universities that are created and maintained by orthodox creeds.

"He preaches democracy yet supports the most rigid campus caste system. He demands that his university maintain the highest athletic standards yet in the same breath also demands a professional football team. He scoffs at his profs yet defends them strenuously when they are criticized. He rebels against rules but sets up more rigid ones when given the opportunity.

"He hazes the high school graduate who comes with a Boy Scout badge on his coat, but he covers his own vest with medals and keys. He invents and uses the most outlandish slang on the street, but reads and writes pure English in his room. He clamors for self-government but doesn't want it after he gets it. He laughs at convention but insists upon it. He cuts classes the day before a vacation but comes back three days early.

"You ask, 'What are we going to do about it?' We are going to praise the Lord that we have him and that he is just what he is, a walking contradiction of himself."

CANDLE-LIGHT HOUSE
Luncheons, Dinners, Suppers,
Dancing Nightly and Sunday
Afternoon
No Cover Charge
CLAYTON ROAD Off Hanley

VOTE FOR

Walter E. Miller

Republican Nominee

for

CLERK OF THE
COUNTY COURT

Sigma Beta Mu Outlines Year's Program, Plans

Lee Maguire, Program Committee Chairman, Plans Papers And Compositions To Treat Of Music From Historical View.

Sigma Beta Mu has outlined the following program for the year, according to Lee Maguire, vice-president of the club and executive chairman of programs. Dealing with music from an historical point of view, papers will be read and compositions will be played.

November . . . Music Preceding the Polyphonic Era.

December . . . Music of the Polyphonic Period.

January . . . Classical Music.

February . . . Music of the Romantic Type.

March . . . Modern Music.

April . . . Ultramodern Types of Music.

May . . . The Best Original Compositions of Sigma Beta Mu's Members.

Plans are under way for various new activities. The first activity sponsored by the club was the selling of tickets to the St. Louis Symphony Concerts, which begin today and end in March.

New Best Sellers Appear in Library

During October many new books have been added to the library. Included in this list are the following:

American Economic History by Faulkner;
Women Fashion Career by Oglesby; Philip II by Walsh;
The Growth of European Civilization by Boak.

The Gang Age by Furley;
Business Opportunities for the Home Economist by Woodhouse;
Modern Banking by Thomas;
Madame Curie by Curie;
Photography by Mees;
In Search of Mozart by Gheen.

There have also been some improvements made in the library. New book stacks and a new vertical file for clippings and pamphlets have been added.

Visit Your Favorite
DRUG STORE

GLASER DRUG CO.

Clayton and Big Bend

We Deliver

Re-elect

Willis W. Benson

Republican Candidate

for

COLLECTOR OF REVENUE

St. Louis County

Local Alumnae Will Entertain State Chapter

Mrs. John Faust and Miss Adriana Mercurio Will Represent College and Academy

St. Louis will be host to the Missouri State Chapter of the International Federation of Catholic Alumnae which will hold its annual convention at the Jefferson Hotel, Saturday and Sunday, Nov. 5 and 6.

Mrs. John J. Faust, president of the Fontbonne College Alumnae, and Miss Adriana Mercurio, president of the St. Joseph's Academy Alumnae, will represent their alumnae as delegates.

Reverend Martin J. O'Malley, C.M., of Kenrick Seminary faculty, will be a guest speaker at a luncheon, Saturday, in the Gold Room of the hotel.

As a result of a custom adopted two years ago, a prize will be awarded to the alumnae that has the best scrap book. The scrap book should contain all the news of the past year concerning the respective alumnae and the school it represents.

Scientists, Dramatists Choose Officers For Year

The following students will serve as officers of Phi Beta Chi for the coming year: Jane O'Connell, president; Dorothy Moyle, vice-president; Virginia Miller, secretary; Marjorie Roth, treasurer.

The Footlights Club has chosen as its officers for this year: Eunice Burt, president; Joy Locke, vice-president; Lee Maguire, secretary; Rosemary Hayden, treasurer.

Patronize . . .

Fontbonne Cafeteria

Compliments of

Stanley Wallach

Republican Nominee

for

PROSECUTING

ATTORNEY

ST. LOUIS COUNTY

THE ABINGTON BY VITALITY
A British Type Oxford of Norwegian Calf, Leather-lined Vamp
—Ideal for Campus or Street

COLBY-WITT SHOE CO.
7821 Forsythe, Clayton
Open Tues.-Thurs.-SAT. 9 P.M.

F.A.A. Features Annual Events Week Of Oct. 31

Hallowe'en Theme of Party. Clubs Announce Leaders.

The annual tennis, badminton and ping pong tournaments will begin the week of Oct. 31. Notices will be posted in the gym and all who wish to enter are asked to sign up.

A Hallowe'en party on Wednesday, Nov. 2, heads a series of activities to be given by the Athletic Association. The ghosts and goblins, if not already spirited away by the previous night's prowling, are requested to press the wrinkles out of their sheets, don their masks and present themselves at the gym at 4:00 o'clock. Numerous games will be played, after which the usual round of "goodies" will end the carousing of the "spirits" for another year.

The F. A. A. also wishes to announce that Helen Vesick is chairman of the Riding Club. Marie Morton is in charge of Unorganized Games, while the Organized Games will be under the direction of Betty Ann LaBarge.

Seniors Win First Honors At Literary Character Party

Characters from the Southern best seller by Margaret Mitchell, Gone with the Wind, won first prize in the Press Club Literary Character Party given last week. Mary Jane Helm, as Scarlett O'Hara, and Rosemary McCarthy, as Rhett Butler, carried off honors.

Second prize went to Dorothy Coff, who portrayed Eleanor Powell in Top Hat. Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs and the Prince came in for third prize. Marie Arena, Angela Hannagan, Lee Walsh, Anna Lucy Hoffman, Kay Disch, Geraldine Duggan and May Stebbins were the Dwarfs; Maud Wright was Snow White, and her Prince was Marian Clark.

Honorable mention went to Helen Stiers's Raggedy Ann, Helen

Charles Mercurio, Jr.
FLORIST

Adriana Mercurio

7163 Lyndover Place

Sterling 0210 Maplewood, Mo.

FRED VARNEY
Sporting Goods Co.
8023 FORSYTHE BLVD.
CLAYTON
Complete Line of Sporting Equipment

Vote for
WM. C. SCHRAMM
DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE
FOR
COLLECTOR OF REVENUE
ST. LOUIS COUNTY

SPOTLIGHTING OUR SENIORS

... JOSEPHINE REYNOLDS ... Daughter of Joseph J. Reynolds ... 5701 Cates avenue ... Visitation Academy Graduate ... Feature writer for Font ... Sociology major ... Winner of trophies in annual horse shows ... Sisters Roberta and Eleanor both graduates of Fontbonne ...

... KAY FLYNT ... Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Flynt ... 1356 Lanier boulevard ... Atlanta, Ga. ... Sacred Heart High ... Physical Ed major ... Font reporter on athletics ... Vice-president of F. A. A. ... Star forward on basketball team ... Member of hockey team ...

... KARLEEN HARTMAN ... Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Hartman ... 5606 Theodosia ... Beaumont High graduate ... Related Art major ... Member of Delta Phi ... Winner of annual "Student Quest" sponsored by Walther League ... Member of Home Economics Club ...

... JOY LOCKE ... Daughter of Dr. and Mrs. William O. Locke ... 21 E. 62nd street ... Kansas City, Mo. ... Southwest High graduate ... Dramatic Art major ... Rosalind in "As You Like It" last spring ... Member of Executive Board of Footlights Club ... Intensely interested in tennis ...

Guyol's Frankenstein, and Dorothy Scheu's Dracula's Daughter.

The executive committee consisted of Kay Disch and Dorothy Coff, co-chairmen, assisted by Kay Flynt, Jo Reynolds, Ann Jedlicka, Rosemary Murphy and Mary Tillman. Miss Ruth Cunliffe Russell, prominent photographer, was judge.

Lungstras
DYEING & CLEANING CO.
Branch Stores
BIG BEND AT PERSHING
and
CLAYTON AT BIG BEND

THE PARKMOOR ...
... All-Cream Ice Cream
... Delicious Sandwiches
Service in Your Car
WEST
Clayton Road at Big Bend

... VIRGINIA O'MALLEY ... Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank O'Malley ... 6142 Kingsbury ... Incarnate Word High graduate ... Sociology major ... Secretary of senior class ... Interested in swimming.

... VIRGINIA MACKAY ... Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Mackey ... 138 Brighton road ... Atlanta, Ga. ... Sacred Heart High alumna ... President of Resident Students' Council ... Vice-president of Student Association and Council ... English major ...

... LILLIAN CARNEY ... Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Carney ... 3125 Michigan ... St. Elizabeth's Academy ... Related Art major ... Member of Delta Phi ... Treasurer of Student Association last year ... Member of Home Economics Club ...

TONIGHT IS THE JUNIOR ROLLER SKATING

PARTY

NEW ARENA RINK

MEET AT 10 O'CLOCK IN THE LOUNGE

Tickets 50 cents

RE-ELECT
Ralph Walsh
DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE
Prosecuting
Attorney

ST. LOUIS COUNTY

YOU'LL FIND Painting

A Grand Adventure

with

Phelan's

4-HOUR ENAMEL

because even the inexperienced can apply a professional Bake-lite finish with a minimum of work and a maximum of satisfaction ... Use it on Walls, Woodwork or Furniture.

*Self-leveling.
*Resists wear, heat, alcohol, acid, alkali.
*Use it inside or outside.
Phelan-Faust
PAINT MFG. CO.
St. Louis

Club Accepts Ten Members At Initiation

Daryl Wenige Appointed Permanent Program Committee Chairman; Marie Sack, Historian

Ten new members were initiated into the Home Economics Club at its first meeting of the year, Oct. 10. Those received into the club were Eloise Rork, Mary Myer, Audrey Hellrung, Mary Stebbins, Jo Roduit, Alice Sutherland, Mary Ellen Sullivan, Marguerite Fassero, Louise Peroni and Veronica McNulty.

During the business of the meeting, Marie Sack was appointed historian. Jo Roduit was elected Spiritual Council representative, and Jane Bristol was elected reporter to the Font. Daryl Wenige was appointed as permanent chairman of the program committee.

As one of its projects for the year the club will make rag dolls and other toys to be placed in the Christmas baskets which will be distributed to the poor.

After the meeting, refreshments were served in the model apartment by the hostesses, Charlotte Bussmann, Marie Sack, Jane Ellen O'Connor and Charlotte Toebe.

Time Flies!

Time Flies! Cameras have been clicking at unexpected moments. Pictures are being submitted to the contest sponsored by the Font for the funniest and best photos of your Fontbonne friends ...

Time Flies! Bring all your snaps to the Press Room. There is a small fee of 25 cents. Each contestant may enter three pictures. Hurry, hurry, hurry!

Exclusive Agency in
St. Louis County for Genuine

Spalding A.G.L.

White Saddle Oxfords
Brown or Black Saddle
$6.50

COLBY-WITT SHOE CO.

7821 Forsythe Clayton
Open Tues., Thurs., Sat., 9 P.M.

RE-ELECT
JOHN P. ENGLISH

RECORDER

OF

DEEDS

ST. LOUIS, Mo.