

Vol. 3, No.1

Fontbonne College, St. Louis 5, Missouri

Oct.12, 1950

IMPORTANT DATES IN 1950-51

Oct. 13 -- College Day
 Oct. 21 -- Fifteenth Annual Fontbonne Homecoming
 Oct. 27, 28, 29 -- Forty Hours Adoration in Fontbonne Chapel
 Nov. 22 -- Thanksgiving Vacation begins
 Dec. 12 -- Key Day for Seniors
 Dec. 16 -- Christmas Vacation begins at Noon
 Jan. 3 -- Classes are resumed
 Jan. 17 to 22 -- Semester Examinations
 Jan. 23 -- Registration for Second Semester
 Jan. 24, 25, 26 -- Students' Annual Retreat
 Jan. 29 -- Classes Open for Second Semester
 Feb. 2 -- Junior Promenade
 Feb. 15 -- Comprehensive Examinations for Seniors
 March 19 -- St. Joseph's Day
 March 21 -- Easter Vacation begins at Noon
 March 29 -- Classes are resumed
 April 12, 13, 14 -- Annual Fontbonne Horse Show
 May 3 -- All-School Picnic
 May 26 -- Final Examinations begin
 June 3 -- Baccalaureate Program
 June 4 -- Commencement Exercises

CALENDAR OF EVENTS

Oct. 12--Mass of the Anniversary of the Consecration of the St. Louis Cathedral, with Collects of this Mass during the Octave.
 Oct. 13--Feast of St. Edward, King. COLLEGE DAY. For full program see other side of this sheet.
 Oct. 16, 12:10 noon--Practice of Glee Club, held every Monday and Wednesday at this time in Recital Room
 4:15 p.m.--Final game of Intramural Tennis Tournament on Fontbonne court. Students are invited to attend.
 Oct. 17, 9:30 a.m.--Mrs. Florence Berger of Cincinnati, Ohio, author of "Cooking for Christ", will show to Home Economics class a film on tables decorated according to the seasons of the Liturgical Year.
 12:10 noon--Meeting of Home Economics Club
 3 p.m.--Red Cross Assembly, with talks by officers of Fontbonne Unit, and by Miss Marie Josephine Carr; also showing to two motion pictures by Mr. Frank Bruno.
 Oct. 19, 12:10 noon--Meeting of Fontbonne Athletic Association
 Oct. 20--Three Catholic students from Germany will visit Fontbonne classes
 20, 4 p.m.--FAA Party for stuffing of toys for Penny Circus, to be held December 1.
 Oct. 21--Fifteenth Annual Homecoming for Fontbonne Students, Alumni, and Friends. Parade in the morning, card parties in the afternoon and evening, dinner commencing at 4:30 in the cafeteria, and dance in the evening in Medaille Hall.
 Oct. 24, 3 p.m.--Assembly conducted by the Fontbonne Unit of the Catholic Students Mission Crusade. with Round-Table discussion of mission activities on the campus, including report on CSMC convention last August at Notre Dame, Indiana, by these delegates: Jeannette Maschmann, Agnes Blandina, Carmelita Schmelig, Eileen Martens, and Janet Prevallet.
 Oct. 27, 28, 29--Forty Hours Adoration in Fontbonne Chapel.
 Oct. 31--Triple-cut day
 Nov. 1--Feast of ALL SAINTS, a holiday
 Nov. 2--Triple-cut day. Sodality Meeting at 12:10 in Recital Hall.
 Nov. 3, 7:30 p.m.--Fall Festival of Sodality Union at St. Louis U gymnasium. Fontbonne's maid is Constance Fiedler, junior.
 Nov. 6--Mid-Semester Examinations begin.
 Nov. 7, 3 p.m.--Speaker at assembly is Padraic Gregory, Irish poet.
 Nov. 8, 6:30 p.m.--Meeting of Delta Phi, art club, in art room, 3d floor, Fine Arts
 Nov. 9, 12:10--Meeting of Mission Unit
 7:00--Meeting of Footlights Club
 Nov. 10, 8 p.m.--Resident Students' Dance in Medaille Hall
 Nov. 12, 12:10 noon--Meetings of French, Spanish, and International Relations Clubs
 3 p.m.--Assembly addressed by Elizabeth Cobb, convert and lecturer, who is the daughter of Irving Cobb, the great American humorist.
 Nov. 17 and 19, 8:15 p.m.--"The Gondoliers" by Gilbert and Sullivan will be produced in the auditorium by the Glee Club, assisted by male singers from the local universities.
 Nov. 24 and 25--Annual National Convention of the Catholic Art Association, with Fontbonne students of art and drama participating.

Office of THE FONT
 Fontbonne College
 St. Louis 5, Missouri

Sec, 34.66 P.L.& R.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COLLEGE DAY, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 13, 1950

Students are requested to read these instructions carefully and then to keep them for reference.

Assembling at 8:30 a.m.: Lay Faculty, men--Council Room; women--Miss Mullins' studio; Religious Faculty--Blue Parlor.

Students: Seniors, Room 301 Ryan Hall; Juniors, 303 Ryan Hall; Sophomores, Den, Ryan Hall; Freshmen, Parlor of Fine Arts Building, with gown carried on left arm and cap in hand.

Order of Procession: Classes in this order, with class officers first in rank--Sophomores, Juniors, Seniors, FRESHMEN. After the students, the Faculty members.

Procession: From Ryan Hall to Fine Arts Building via Science Arcade, the Horse Shoe, across Center of Front Campus (fish pond area) to Fine Arts Foyer.

Places in Auditorium: Sophomores ON THE RIGHT SIDE as you enter, occupying ten rows to purple ribbon
Juniors ON THE LEFT SIDE, occupying five rows after purple ribbon
Seniors ON THE LEFT SIDE, in ten rows after yellow ribbon
Freshmen ON THE RIGHT SIDE, in ten rows in front
Faculty ON THE LEFT SIDE, in five rows in front
(Four officers of Student Association go immediately to stage)

Program at 8:45: School song, then
Greeting from the president of Student Association; then officers of Senior Class go to the stage for Investiture of Freshmen in Caps and Gowns, eight Freshmen going to the stage at one time

Order of Recession: Faculty, FRESHMEN, Seniors, Juniors, Sophomores. Then, right about face in front of Ryan Hall so as to secure proper formation going into Chapel

Places in Chapel: Sophomores in last pews on both sides of chapel, as marked by purple ribbons
Juniors in front of sophomores in pews marked by purple ribbons
FRESHMEN on both sides in pews marked by gold ribbons
Faculty on both sides in pews marked by white ribbons
(If there are insufficient places, some sophomores will occupy chairs in rear of chapel.)

When all have reached their places, all will please genuflect together at a signal to be given in the rear of the chapel.

High Mass in Chapel at 9:30. Proceeded by Tribute and Hymn to Saint Joseph. Celebrant and Homilist of Mass is Fr. Victor T. Suren, co-director of the Central Verein. The Proper of the Mass will be chanted by a schola of Resident Students. The Ordinary of the Mass will be from "Our Sung Mass", and will be sung by all in the congregation in the spirit of Christian social worship. At the Communion, the Gregorian "Adoro Te" will be sung by all in the congregation, also.

All are reminded that HOLY COMMUNION WILL BE GIVEN AT THIS MASS.

At the end of Mass, the signal for genuflection before leaving the chapel will be the bringing of the college banner to the center aisle.

Recessional from the Chapel will be followed by Brunch in the cafeteria about 10:45. Decorating of cars will be done immediately after brunch. Cars of Seniors and Juniors are to be parked in the horseshoe; of Sophomores and Freshmen in the area before Medville Hall.

Skits will be presented at 12:45 in the Auditorium.

Motor Parade to Carondelet will commence at 1:30 p.m., with cars in this order: Automobiles of President and Faculty; of Seniors, Juniors, Sophomores, and Freshmen; then Buses.

Visiting at Carondelet will be concluded with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament in the Carondelet Chapel at 4 p.m. Caps and gowns are to be taken to Carondelet and worn for Benediction.

Assembly attendance cards will be passed before the investiture ceremonies in the morning and collected at Carondelet after Benediction.

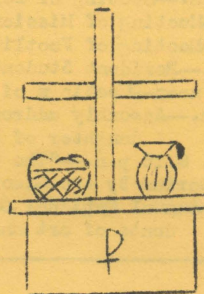

The Faculty and all students are to be in academic dress for the morning exercises. Dr. Wm. E. Van Tass, director of the Department of Sociology, will be the marshall of the academic procession, and will be assisted by Marilyn Miller and Mary Ann Pierce.

The Tribute to St. Joseph will be made in the name of all students by those Socialists: Jeanette Maschmann, Arline Marklin, Carmelita Schnellig, Janet Halsey, and Yvonne Allen.

The Freshmen will be invested in cap and gown by the officers of the Student Association--Marilyn Miller, Mary Ann Pierce, Aurelia Murphy, Ruth Raupp--and those of the Senior Class--Peggy Murphy, Nancy Carter, Marie Seever, and Patricia Flynn.

Joan Steffen and other members of the committee in charge of the parade of decorated cars request that students who are to ride in the busses register their names promptly, and also that students driving cars register their cars and the passengers they will carry. It is important to do this so that no cars will be overcrowded.

COLLEGE DAY COMMENCES AT 8:30 A.M. SHARP.

Full participation in the Mass with Christ Our Elder Brother will enrich the spirit of Christian fellowship on College Day. -- Father Suren