Student Organization Spotlight of the Week: Black Student Union (BSU)

Fontbonne University Black Student Union is a supportive organization looking to build unity within the Black Community at Fontbonne. Our mission as the Black Student Union is to improve the conditions of Black students' experience: culturally, socially, and intellectually as minority students. This organization aims to create a positive, welcoming environment for fellow black students while creating a positive image of Black people. As Black History Month continues, BSU will be hosting an event each week focusing on black history, excellence, and mental health. Looking to join Black Student Union? Come to any of the events or meetings and speak with our team for more information. Roniyah Harris or Advisor, Deanna Williams.
