

THE FONT LETTER

Vol.3, No.7

Fontbonne College, St. Louis 5, Missouri

March 12, 1951

CALENDAR OF EVENTS

- M A R C H -- The Month of St. Joseph
- March 4 to April 22--Display of 279 art treasures in the Vienna Collection, held at the City Art Museum, Forest Park. Open every day 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., and Mondays and Thursdays 10 a.m. to 9:30 p.m. No admission charge. Students of Art and Humanities will visit the collection in groups at dates to be announced later.
- March 1 to 31--Red Cross drive for memberships at $1 each. Campus unit has table in Ryan Hall, first floor, where its members receive memberships.
- March 12, 3:20 p.m.--After-school sports every Monday and Wednesday at this time
- 12, 4 p.m.--Meeting of Red Cross unit
- 12, 7 p.m.--Meeting of Sigma Beta Mu, music club. Mr. Philip H. Albright, who plays double bass in the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra, will be the guest artist, playing a Sonata by Marcello. Joan Gossin and Marianne Bonner will play piano numbers and Mariotta Saunders and Lucille Kroner will sing. All students are invited.
- 12, 7:30 p.m.--Monthly meeting of S.D.S. (Supply the Demand for the Supply) at Visitation Academy, Cabanne and Belt avenues, presided over by Ruth Ennen of Maryville College, elected at last month's meeting to succeed Patricia Hannagan, who has resigned.
- 12, 8:15 p.m.--Meeting of Fontbonne Horse Show Association in Ryan Hall. Students are asked to remind their parents to attend.
- March 13--Collection by Mission Unit of cash donations for the Bishops' Fund for the Victims of War. Collections so far this Lent--$74.09; Lent of 1950--$115.71; Lent of 1949--$114.76. As there is no collection next Tuesday, students are urged to contribute generously this week and bring the total for Lent above that of 1950.
- 13, 2:20 p.m.--The Rev. Howard Ralenkotter, C.F., of the Passionist Monastery, Chicago, will speak at the student assembly on the Religious Vocation. He is the originator of Good Counsel Vocation clubs.
- 13, 3:20 p.m.--College Chorus practices every Tuesday and Thursday at this time. One semester hour credit is given all students who participate.
- 13, 4 p.m.--Meeting of the French Club
- 13, 4 p.m.--Meeting of the Swimming Club every Tuesday at this time
- March 14, 10:45 a.m.--At the invitation of the Stowe Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta sorority, the Choral group and other musicians of Fontbonne will give a program at the assembly of Stowe Teachers' College. Instrumentalists participating are Evelyn Post, Marianne Bonner, Joan Gossin, Donaldino Garcia, and Alice Cataldi.
- 14, 3 p.m.--Fontbonne students of music interested in music therapy will give program at St. Vincent's Sanitarium
- 14, 6:30 p.m.--Meeting of Delta Phi, art club
- 14, 7:45 to 8 p.m., and every Wednesday night at this time, over KBIL, campus station of St. Louis University, Evelyn Post, Fontbonne junior, and Fred Oertel, University graduate student, hold program of German music and discussion in German and English of present-day Germany as it interests students.
- March 15, 2:20 p.m.--Meeting of Spanish club in Fine Arts parlor
- 15, 8 p.m.--Meeting of Fontbonne alumnae in Medaille hall, with showing of the motion picture, "The Holy Year." Students are asked to remind alumnae to attend and bring their friends. Mary Concannon '41 is chairman.
- March 16--Feast of the Seven Dolours of the Blessed Virgin. A triple-cut day.
- March 17--Feast of St. Patrick, Apostle of Ireland
- 17, 1 p.m.--KXOK will present Metropolitan Opera Company in Puccini's "La Boheme" with Fontbonne's favorite tenor, Giuseppe Di Stefano, singing the role of Rodolfo.
- 17--Easter vacation begins after last Saturday class
- March 18--PALM SUNDAY, with Blessing and Procession of Palms
- 18--The new Stations of the Cross in Medaille chapel will appear in color in Tempo, rotogravure section of the Globe-Democrat, as photographed by Jack Zehrt. The Stations were blessed and erected Feb. 27 by the Rev. Marian Habis, O.F.M., of St. Anthony's Monastery.
- 18, 8:15 p.m.--"Thy Kingdom Come", a Passion play by John McCabe, will be produced in Fontbonne auditorium by the Cardinal Glennon Community Theatre with a cast of fifty men and women, including Fontbonne students Carmolita Schnellig, Constance Fiedler, and Nancy Robertson. Miss Belle M. Mullins, head of speech department, will direct. The Fontbonne College Chorus, assisted by male voices, will furnish the musical setting, singing largely from the St. Matthew Passion by Bach. Sister M. Antone will direct the choral numbers. Tickets are one dollar. Students are invited, also their families and friends.
- March 19, 10 a.m.--Six former students of Fontbonne will participate in the ceremonies of profession and reception at St. Joseph's Mother House, Carondelet. Sister Catherine Therese (Mary Jane Ruoff '48) will make her vows. Receiving the religious habit are Dorothy Baumstark '41, Mary Ann Brotherton ex-'49, and Patricia Lorenz, Marie Schindler, and Rosemary Van Oss of last year's sophomore class.
- March 19, 8 p.m.--Msgr. Martin B. Hollriegel will give the third in his series of talks on the Mass at the Lower Church of St. Francis Xavier, Grand and Lindell blvd.
- March 21--WEDNESDAY OF HOLY WEEK
- March 22--HOLY THURSDAY, with High Mass, Procession and Exposition of the Most Blessed Sacrament.
- HOLY HOUR from 11 p.m. to midnight in chapel at Fontbonne, sponsored by the Sodality of Our Lady. Students, their friends and families are invited.
- March 23--GOOD FRIDAY. Mass of the Pre-Sanctified and Adoration of the Cross
- March 24--HOLY SATURDAY, Easter blessings, Baptism, and Mass.
- Josephine Chang, junior from China, will be baptized in St. Francis Borgia Church, Washington, Mo., her god-parents being Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Post. Visits to their home with Evelyn, their daughter, had much influence in bringing her into the Church. Her brother, William Chang, was baptized in Detroit last year.

SCHOLARSHIP WINNERS ANNOUNCED

A preliminary announcement was made today of the winners of scholarships earned through competitive examinations held at Fontbonne and eight other centers in the Middle West last month.

For the four-year scholarship, valued at $800, to be given to day scholars, three contestants tied. They are Jeanne Gantner, 7510 Forest View, of Laboure High School, Mary Lou Schukai, 4527 Queens, of Incarnate Word Academy, and Patricia Moore, 7437 Bland Drive, of St. Joseph's Academy.

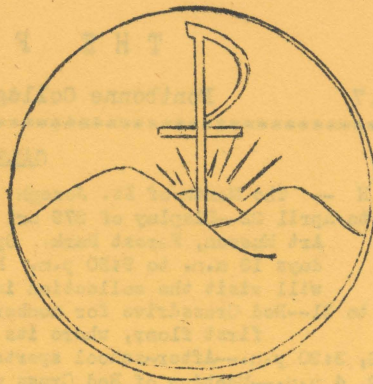

For the four-year scholarship for day students, valued at $400, two girls tied: Joan Goodberlet, 6378 Smiley, of Ursuline Academy, and Joan Godat, 3092 Lucas and Hunt Road, of Incarnate Word Academy.

In the music department, the scholarship in voice, valued at $800, went to Suzanne Brussmann, 3551 Wright, of Incarnate Word Academy, and Florence Spack of St. Joseph's Academy received honorable mention. The scholarship in piano, valued at $800, went to Patricia Carter, 4315 Holly Hills Blvd., of Rosati-Kain High School, who is a sister of Nancy Carter, now a senior at Fontbonne. Patti Berter of Notre Dame Academy, Quincy, Ill., received honorable mention. The scholarship in organ was won by Mary Ann Hilgeman, 8723 Magdalen, Brentwood, of St. Joseph's Academy.

Honorable mention in the competition for day students was given as follows: From St. Joseph's Academy, Nancy O'Leary, Betty Jones, Joan Barry, Mary Ann Klein, and Marceline Gratiaa, who is the sister of Mary and Jo Ann Gratiaa, now students here; from Laboure High School, Clementine Walz, Beverly Mossenhoff, Sharen Baber, Joan Newman, Ann Heithaus, Mary Ann Auer, Mary Ann Quinlan; from Sacred Heart Academy, Ann Moore and Mary Suzanne Burke, who is the daughter of Mrs. Fabian J. Burke, who was Agnes Collins of Fontbonne's class of 1929; from Rosati-Kain High School, Marilyn Petzold; from Beaumont High School, Mary Jo Adams; from St. Elizabeth's Academy, Kay Gunn, who is the daughter of Mrs. Donald Gunn, Loretta Hennelly of Fontbonne's class of 1929; from St. Alphonsus Rock High School, Joan Maschmann, sister of Jeannette, a Fontbonne junior; from St. Mary's High School, Bridgeton, Doris Witte; from St. Anthony's High School, Mary Louise Roderique, Mary Elizabeth Bereswill, and Marilyn Treis; from Incarnate Word High School, Catherine Ditenhafer and Gerry Schmalz, sister of Lorraine of the sophomore class of Fontbonne.

Tied for the $1200 scholarship for resident students were Mary Margaret Gallagher of Notre Dame High School, Quincy, Ill., and Mary Suzanne Leach, of Immaculate Conception High School, Elmhurst, Ill.; and tied for the second $1200 scholarship were Joan Carter, of Sacred Heart Academy, Biloxi, Miss., and Sylvia Ann Devine of Mercy High School, Chicago.

Winning honorable mention among the contestants for residents' scholarships were Rosa Floro and Patsy Garbacz of Mount St. Mary, Little Rock, Arkansas; Jacqueline Burkel of St. Joseph's Academy, Green Bay, Wisconsin; Mary Elizabeth Fieeg of Valle High School, Ste. Genevieve, Mo.; Joan Lampton of McCooey Memorial High School, Hannibal, Mo.; and Cornelia Kohlberg of Precious Blood High School, Runa, Ill.

The Resurrection of Christ is the central event of the whole of history, the most striking proof of Christ's divinity, and the foundation of our Faith.

CALENDAR OF EVENTS, Continued

- March 25--EASTER SUNDAY, Feast of the Resurrection of Our Lord Jesus Christ
March 28, 8:30 a.m.--Classes resume at Fontbonne after Easter vacation. A triple-cut-day
28, 4 p.m.--Meeting of International Relations Club
March 28, 29, and April 1, 7:30 p.m.--Family Life Conference at Fontbonne, a project of the St. Louis region of the National Federation of Catholic College Students. Religion, budgeting, house furnishing, and fashions as related to preparation for marriage will be discussed. Lorraine Monpen is the campus and regional chairman of Family Life for NFCCS; Jackie Shelton and Sue Ryan are senior and junior delegates. All students and their friends are invited. Sunday night's meeting will be followed by a social hour.
March 29--Meeting of Home Economics club and initiation of its pledges
March 30, 31, and April 1--Conference of International Federation of Catholic Alumnae at Statler.
April 1--LOW SUNDAY
April 2--Feast of the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary
April 3--Feast of SAINT JOSEPH, Patron of the Universal Church, and special patron of the Sisters of St. Joseph and Fontbonne College
April 4 to 11--Mid-semester examinations.
April 5, 6, 7 and 10--Twelfth Annual Music Festival at Fontbonne, open to high-school and grade-school students of music. Application is made to Sister John Joseph.
April 6--FIRST FRIDAY. Mass for all students in Fontbonne chapel at 8:30 a.m. Holy Hour at 12:30. Benediction at 5 p.m. Exposition all day.
6, 4:30 p.m.--Basketball: Fontbonne vs. Monticello here.
6, 8 p.m.--Fashion show sponsored by Fontbonne alumnae at Founders' Hall of Stix, Baer & Fuller, with styles for misses, matrons, and children. Tickets $1. All are invited.
April 10, 2:20 p.m.--Fenton Moran speaks at assembly on "Democracy and Responsibility".
April 12, 13 and 14--Nineteenth Annual Horse Show of Fontbonne and St. Joseph's Academy at Missouri Stables Arena, 5200 Berthold ave. Student tickets are 50¢; adults' $1.00.
Important: An all-city Marian Congress will be sponsored at Fontbonne by the campus Sodality on a Sunday in April or May to be announced later by Carmelita Schmellig, chairman.