

Support the Organ Drive

THE FONT

See 'Seven
Little Rebels'

Vol. XVI—No. 4

FONTBONNE COLLEGE, ST. LOUIS, MO.

Friday, December 5, 1941

See "Seven Little Rebels" Tomorrow Afternoon

Proceeds Will Be Donated To United Charities Drive

After a busy month of rehearsals and costume fittings, the Speech Department is ready with its initial production of the year. The play, entitled "Seven Little Rebels", was written by Rosemary Musil and will be given tomorrow afternoon at 2:15 in the Little Theater. Miss Belle Marie Mullins, instructor in speech, directed the play, and the class in play production had charge of staging. Admission prices for children will be ten cents; for adults, twenty-five cents. The entire proceeds will be donated to the United Charities campaign.

This is the first attempt by the Speech Department to present a child's play with adult actors. Although "Seven Little Rebels" was written especially for children, it is not beneath the attention of an adult, for it has been entered in the Thespian Play Series as a contest play because of its worth to audiences of any age. An added feature is the use of live animals in the play, including a dog, a duck, and a cat. A snake, looking very much like a live one, also finds its way into the play action.

As the title suggests, the "Seven Little Rebels" are young children who fairly romp through the three acts of the play. Life in a settlement house of a large city presents many complicated problems to them. But, taking matters in their own hands, the little rebels remedy a very serious situation. After many exciting moments, the play winds up to a very agreeable end.

The cast includes: Alice Lee Sawyers as Miss Baker; Marjorie Boeving as Miss Proudfoot; Suzanne Nachtman as Miss Thelma; Rosemary Murphy as Doctor Tony; Rosemary Holden as Miss Dorothy; Jeanne Mooney as Lizetta; Edwina Wright as Doctor Grayson; Anna Sverdrup as a policeman; Jane Callahan as Tiny; Mary O'Reilly as Rosemary; Stan Mooney as Billy; Pat Luce as Janet; Mary Ellen Boggiano as Lizbeth; Pat Duggan as Mike; Mary Lou Menges as Jimmy and Marilyn McAteer as Letta.

Sigma Beta Mu Sponsors Drive for Auditorium Organ

With visions of an organ for commencement in '42, Sigma Beta Mu is sponsoring a drive for the auditorium organ. Although Sigma Beta Mu is the sponsor, the entire student body will profit from this activity.

The organ will be used at assemblies, theatrical productions, style shows, commencements, class days, and other similar school functions presented in the auditorium.

A Fontbonne benefactor has generously offered to advance a large sum of money for the fund, to be paid back without interest provided Fontbonne raises a certain amount of money within a limited time, thus proving the students' interest in the project. This sum of money will mean that the organ may be installed by Commencement and that the school will have its use from the moment of installation.

The present plans for raising money include saving old music and magazines and giving a silver musical tea in Fine Arts Hall, December 14.

Old music that is obtained will be sold to the students in the Music Department at half price. The old magazines will be sold for paper stock.

Dorothy Sackbauer is the chairman of the tea, with Mary Alice Chandler, Adelaide Allen, Suzanne Nachtman and Joan Brandt assisting her.

The general chairman of the drive is Alice Voegli, '41. Mary Virginia Kohl is the student chairman for the fund. Student Chairmen for other committees are: Henrietta Bender and Lorraine Ash, magazines; and Lee Maguire, old music.

Sister John Joseph, head of the Music Department, is very enthusiastic about this project. According to Sister, "We already have about five hundred pounds of old paper, but we need five thousand pounds before we can begin to sight our goal."

WARNING!

The picture "Two-Faced Woman" scheduled to open at Loew's Theatre yesterday is condemned by the Legion of Decency as unfit for the public to see for the following reasons:

1. the irreverent approach to matrimony;
2. The suggestive scenes and costumes;
3. The suggestive dialogue.

Although the showing of this picture has been postponed it is rumored that it will be presented some time after Christmas. All Catholics are asked to boycott this film with the hope that those who show such injurious pictures will realize the harm being done to the morals of the nation.

Dean Names Forty-Two Girls To Mid-Semester Honor List

A. Murphy, Ball, Pandjiris, DiStefano Rank Highest

The mid-semester honor roll for Fontbonne College has just been released by Sister Joseph Aloisius, the Dean. Of the forty-two students listed the seniors have the largest percentage. Those ranking highest are Audrey Murphy, Rosemary Gloria Pandjiris, Anita Antionette DiStefano and Mary Elizabeth Ball.

To be on the Dean's Honor List a student must make at least an "A" grade, and the other grades must be "B". A student must carry at least twelve semester hours of credit before her name will appear on the list.

Seniors

	A	B
Bass, Mary Ernestine	1	5
Block, Aileen	1	4
Francis, Shirley Jane	1	5
Gibbons, Mary Margaret	4	3
Hallinan, Mary Patricia	2	2
Hurley, Evelyn	1	5
Meyer, Mary Margaret	1	4
Riedel, Mary Elizabeth	3	3
Rohman, Roslyn	2	6
Sansone, Marie	1	3
Wahlert, Mary Rita	3	2
Ward, Rosemary	2	4

Juniors

	A	B
Bell, Mary Elizabeth	5	2
Boeving, Marjorie	4	2
Daniels, Dorothy Jane	3	4
Higgins, Betty	1	6
Leahy, Margaret	1	5
Murphy, Audrey	6	2
Numainville, Evelyn	4	3

Sophomores

	A	B
Noonan, Grace	4	2
McCabe, Mary	3	5
LaBarge, Louise	3	3
Callahan, Jane	2	4
Pandjiris, Rosemary Gloria	5	3
Ryan, Alice	2	5
Schuh, Betty	4	4
Walsh, Rosemary	3	4
Wright, Edwina	3	3

Freshmen

	A	B
Boggiano, Mary Ellen	2	4
Burke, Beatrice Ann	3	5
Di Stefano, Anita	5	3
Heberger, Anne Marie	3	3
Johnston, Gloria Mary	4	3
Kisling, Rosejoan	1	5
Quirk, Mary Jane	1	5
Wintz, Mary Adele	2	5

Sisters

	A	B
Kerch, Sister M. Angelo	2	4
Killam, Sister Virginia	5	1
Schmitz, Sister Mary	2	3
Strotman, Sister Miriam	1	5
Towns, Sister Clara, D.	2	2
Walter, Sister Mary Lucy	4	2

Donley, Holden Rank High Nationally on American Pschy. Exam.

Patricia Donley and Rosemary Holden are the two Fontbonne freshmen who ranked highest in the 1941 edition of the American Council on Education Psychological Examination for College Freshmen administered at the beginning of this scholastic year.

Only two percent of the women taking the test scored higher than Patricia Donley. Her total score was 150, which placed her in the 98th percentile. Rosemary Holden's total score of 144 placed her in the 95th percentile. Only five percent of the women taking the test scored higher than Rosemary.

Ranking next on the examination were Anne Marie Heberger, having a total score of 130, and ranking in the 89th percentile, and Joan Sanders, with a total score of 129 and ranking in the 79th percentile.

These scores are compared with scores of 6445 freshmen women in colleges throughout the United States. The tests are organized to measure quantitative and linguistic abilities. The former are represented by tests in arithmetic, figurative analogies, and number series; the latter, by completion, same and opposite, and verbal analogies tests.

Patricia Donley is the daughter of Mr. William J. Donley of 2112 Linton avenue. She is a graduate of the Academy of the Visitation and ranked first in her class of 46. She is 17 years old.

Rosemary Holden is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul J. Holden of 5369 Patton avenue. She was graduated from St. Joseph's Academy and ranked first in her class of 46. She is 17 years old.

Anne Marie Heberger, 17 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Heberger of 956 Glenmoor lane, graduated from Kirkwood High School, where she was a member of the National Honor Society.

Joan Sanders, 17 years old, daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Sanders of 4971 Highland avenue, is a graduate of the Academy of the Visitation, where she ranked fourth in her class of 29.

Registration Dilemma Begins Next Week

The class schedule for the second semester will be completed next week, and in order that students may be given consideration in the arrangement of the schedule, they are urged to fill out their pre-registration blanks before Christmas vacation begins.

Before attempting to decide what courses to take, freshmen and sophomores should consult their advisers, and juniors and seniors should see their major and minor professors.

The student body should endeavor to give the office full cooperation in this matter. This will not only be of great assistance and a time saver to the office, but will be of great benefit to the students.

Dads and Daughters Dine

Betty Ball, Mr. G. P. Schats, Mary Lou Menges, Mr. W. L. Menges, and Agnes Menges are shown at the 2nd annual Father-Daughter Banquet, held last Tuesday, Dec. 2nd, in the dining room. Almost 100 girls and their dads were present.

After the chicken dinner, entertainment was furnished by Joseph Lorenz, who gave a reading, "My First Experience at Skiing," and Joan Brandt, who sang, "Gia Nianna Mia."

Monsignor Leo J. Steck spoke on "Religion as the First Line of National Defense." In emphasizing the importance of spiritual things, he said, "Show me a man or a woman who is loyal to God, and I will show you a man or a woman who is loyal to his country."

The guest speaker, Mr. G. C. Zarnum, discussed the "Accident Situation in St. Louis." He indicated the causes as speed, intoxication, and jay-walking. "We live in an age of speed," Mr. Zarnum said, and then went on to relate several stories concerning the results of speeding.

The Font

Published semi-monthly during the scholastic year at
FONTBONNE COLLEGE
 Wydown and Big Bend Blvds.
 St. Louis, Missouri
 Subscription $1.00 per year.
 Member of Secretariat International
 de Presse Universitaire Catholique

1941 Member 1942
Associated Collegiate Press

THE STAFF

EDITOR.....BARBARA RAUPP
 CITY EDITOR.....MARY VIRGINIA RICHARD
 BUSINESS MANAGER.....BETTY HIGGINS
 FEATURE EDITOR.....EDWINA WRIGHT
 ADVERTISING MANAGER.....GLORIA PANDJIRIS
 CIRCULATION MANAGER.....KATHERINE HERNAN
REPORTERS—Aleen Block, Kathleen Burke, Betty Raupp, Dorothy Casey, LaVerne Connors, Susanne Nachtmann, Dorothy Frank, Anna Sansone, Audrey Murphy, Dorothy Sackbauer, Dorothea Wells, Mary Virginia Richard, Alice Ryan, Loraine Flynt, Elizabeth Carroll, Mary McCabe, Mary Jane Quirk, Patricia Duggan, Jean Houlehin.

• let there be music!

Drives at Fontbonne seem to be in vogue and the reason lies in the fact that they prove so successful. Yes, there is another — the Organ Fund Drive. Profits obtained from this drive will aid in the purchase of an organ for the auditorium.

Fontbonne's need for this organ has long been realized, but not much has been done in the way of making it possible. It is a definite fact that the installation of the organ will be a great asset to the school. This instrument will add much to commencement exercises, assembly programs, dramatic presentations, and similar activities held in the auditorium. It will lead to a greater appreciation of music among the students.

In view of all these advantages, Fontbonners — rally and support this cause! Let each student determine to work for this project!

• gifts and gold — is this Christmas spirit?

Gaily decorated windows are the merchants' ways of preparing for the season of Christmas. Their idea is to promote the benevolence that accompanies what they call the "Christmas spirit." The whole world assumes an attitude of expectancy and anticipation that is reflected in the flamboyant red and green color scheme that is characteristic of the season.

The true Christmas spirit cannot, and should not, be measured in terms of stock turnover. This feeling, for which Advent is a preparation, is not obtained with American dollars and cents. It means an uplifting of the heart and mind to receive Christ, the true Giver of the Christmas spirit. He lifts the bars of race prejudice and social status and enters every home with the same gentleness and mercy for all.

How, then, shall we receive Him? Using all our energy in preparing materially for Christmas is worthless if that is all we do. What Christ looks for is a kindly action often repeated; a purer heart than He knew last Christmas; and, above all, a deeper appreciation of the religious significance of Christmas Day.

Looking for Knowledge — Or Just Something New?

Next time you are in the library, be sure you take time aside from your reference work and look up J. A. Ryan's new Autobiography, "Social Doctrine in Action."

To expand your ideas of the present day events we have,

Democracy's Second Charm, by S. Boyle. The Reign of King George Fifth, by D. E. Somerville; Union With Britain, by C. K. Stret; For What Do We Fight, by Sir N. Angell, and The U. S. and Japan's New Order, by W. C. Johnston.

A little reminder: don't forget to fill out the study slips provided for you at the circulation desk.

Vox Studenti

The Font will not assume responsibility for the opinions voiced in this column. Such opinions are solely those of the writer. All letters from students are welcomed.

Dear Editor:

A vote of thanks is in order for our Dean — our thanks for permitting the students to convene in an open Student Council meeting. This privilege has never before been extended to the student body and our appreciation should be expressed by wholehearted cooperation. The misuse of this privilege would not only deprive us of the right to govern ourselves democratically, but prevent future classes from doing likewise.

Democracy, however, denied by present day soap-boxists, is our chosen form of government. What better place than in our schools are we to learn its principles and benefits? Where else are we to teach the future citizens the various cooperative phases of self-government? Here is our chance to eliminate the grossly ineffective methods of government so prevalent today.

It is up to us to realize the seriousness of the situation and take advantage of our opportunities. Let us express our gratitude by conducting ourselves as college girls and future citizens should conduct themselves.

A "Free-for-all-er."
 ★ ★ ★

Dear Editor:

I don't want to seem like a complaining individual, but at this point I am really riled up. I just poked my nose in the den and have never been so disgusted in all my life. In fact, at first I thought I was in the wrong room, because it certainly didn't look like our usually good-looking den to me. Old papers strewn all over the floors, The University News (with apologies to St. Louis U.) adorning EVERY couch and chair, candy papers, Cheese-U boxes, chewing gum wrappers and, well I could go on for hours, but I think you get the idea. The whole room was in a state of complete chaos. Now I know that the den is the place where we can relax and have fun, but let's try to be a little more lady-like in doing it. After all, dear Editor, we are college girls, and should act as such.

You know the Sisters go into the den every evening for their recreation and just think how they feel when they see such a mess! Of course, they don't say anything, because they probably think that we're young and just having our fling, but let's show them that we have a little consideration for them as well as for ourselves. It only takes a little bit of thought on our part to remember that there are waste paper baskets in the den, and that they aren't there just for decoration.

Clean-up Cleo.

ALUMNAE NOTES

Mrs. Leo Huppert, the former Lila Watson, became the mother of a baby boy on November 16. This is her second child. The Huppert family now resides in Okmulgee, Oklahoma, or pronounce it yourself. We only write the news. Miss Betty King was married to Dr. George F. Stocker on October 29. Dr. Stocker is serving in the Naval Reserves at San Diego, California, as Lt. Surgeon, and is telling it to the Marines.

Let's Talk It Over

Tain't It The Truth

They say there are no more exams, They all insist upon it.
 "We only give you tests," they smile, But I know better now, doggone it.
 History since 10 B. C.
 English up from Chaucer.
 For Chemistry we have to know The c.c.'s in a saucer.
 Call them tests or call them quizzes, Call them anything you plizzes,
 Call them trials, or correlations, I say they're examinations.

Campus Melodies

Since music is supposed to uplift the soul, many souls around here are shooting pretty high these days — with all the various musical ventures assailing the ears.

We hear Numie has changed her tune. It used to be "If I Had the Wings of An Angel," but now it's "Oh, I have the wings of Johnnie but oh for the wings of Charlie!"

We wonder if Jimmie Menges and Bette Schuh know how much they have in common? They no longer croon "And when I walk, I always walk with Billie," but "Goodbye dear, you'll be back in 2½ years — or so."

Weather Prophecy for Next Week

Monday: Mist
 Tuesday: Mist
 Wednesday: Mist
 Thursday: Bull's Eye

The Hall Harpie Harps Again

Franny Morse received an orchid for just being a good girl last Sunday. Ah, sweet remembrance; reminds us of the tea rose we received two — or was it three years ago?

Mary Adele Wintz exclaimed to the speech class: "Oh, I just adore low voices. They're so masculine." Does she belong to the "Oh, you dreat big bute'ful man" category?

In Biology Class—Teacher: What do bees do with their honey?

Brilliant Freshman: They cell it.

Frances Lynch and Father Kelly are monopolizing the religion class these days, so they tell us.

Whom does Jacqui Casey meet for lunch every Wednesday? Must be quite a saving on the allowance.

All The Answers

As reporters, we get some peculiar answers. We overtook a senior in the hall the other day:

We: Do you know anything funny connected with the seniors?

She: Only their pictures.

One of the first things we learned was to try, try again, so, undaunted, we approached a freshman:

We: Do you know any dope for the paper?

Freshman: You're the only dope I know.

P.S.—We didn't try it again.

Who Fell at the Fall Frolie?

Gloria Sicking must have seen "Kelly" green through those dark glasses she wore. Was it the glasses or she that intrigued Joe?

Jean Houlehin is offering a reward to anyone who has any information concerning the whereabouts of her date at the party. Why do you think handcuffs were invented?

School Days

Equations: Boy plus girl equals date.
 Boy minus girl equals broke.
 Boys divided by girl equals fued.

Tearful Tragedy In Four Acts:

Act I—Cream
 Act II—Exam
 Act III—Flunk
 Act IV—Sunk

Individual Individualists

Have you noticed?

1. How Mary Alice Guelker's throat gets red when she's angry?
2. How Rosemary Holden's one eyebrow quirks?
3. How Pete Pratt doesn't ice skate?
4. How Lorraine Ash says anything, anywhere, to anybody?

Rhymes That Don't

Roses are red, violets blue,
 So did the man with a cold.

Humpty Dumpty sat on a wall,
 Humpty Dumpty had a great fall,
 All the king's horses and all the king's men,
 Had egg-nog.

At the A. C. P. Whirl

Then there was the slightly inebriated bit of timber from sunny southland who exclaimed at the banquet table what a great disappointment was St. Louis, "Sure 'nuff, I walked into Famous-Barr and what did ah find but a department store."

From Taps To Reveille Do You Sleep Heavily?

By MISS O'GUREY

Hearken to my words, all you ten o'clock scholars! Do you dream of sleeping blissfully through that 8:30 class without fear of a court martial? Taking the "ayes" for granted, I hasten to inform you that you're not very original, because 48% of all the other students who subscribe to the Student Opinion Surveys are in favor of the motion, too.

It's a fifty-fifty proposition, my friends—41% of our students are early risers. They advocate a minimum requirement for class attendance, the stooges! Imagine all the "mornings after" they'd have to spend in a straight-backed chair, wrestling with a text book.

Then there are the undecided few who would allow only a chosen number to attend class at will. Eleven per cent agree that only the brainstorms should be given the privilege. What an incentive for making A's.

Take your pick—but don't knock me down in following the line of least resistance! Chicago University has successfully used the voluntary method for some time, so if I see the highways to Chicago crowded with hitchhikers, I'll know the reason why. As for me, give me a bed any Monday, Wednesday, or Friday. Ah!—Morpheus, you have a fatal charm.

Announcing . . .

- Dec. 6—Seven Little Rebels. Annual Fall Play.
- Dec. 11—The Messiah, presented by the Glee Club.
- Dec. 14—Tea for the Organ Fund.
- Dec. 16—Sodality Party for St. Joseph's Colored High School.
- Dec. 16—The Boarders' Formal Christmas Dinner.
- Dec. 18—All-School Christmas Party.
- Dec. 20—Christmas Recess Begins at Noon.

Faculty News

In the interests of social science classes, Mother Mary Pius, Sister Joseph Aloysius, Sister Berenice, and Sister Ellen Joseph attended the Municipal League Convention held at the Coronado Hotel during the Thanksgiving holidays.

The National Conference on Research in English, in reviewing unpublished studies in the field of English language and literature, has requested Miss Gertrude Horgan to send in her study, made last year, of freshman tests and the effect of methods of instruction on the test results.

Sister Susanne Marie has returned from Hableton, West Virginia, after visiting her mother who was ill. During Sister Susanne Marie's absence Sister Lucida conducted her classes.

A faculty meeting was held on Friday, November 28, at 1:00 o'clock. Some points discussed at the meeting were: the use of letters instead of figures in the grading system, requirements for entrance into the school, and fields of concentration. The faculty voted to adopt the letter system for recording grades.

The Home Economics faculty met recently to arrange changes in their curriculum. They also submitted the aims and objectives of their department for the new catalogue.

The Family Committee had a meeting in the Ryan Hall faculty room on October 31, at which was discussed the subjects to be offered in the Family Course. The members of the committee representing various departments are: Sister Berenice, Education; Sister Alfred, Psychology; Sister Martha, Home Economics; Sister Rose Agnes, Biology; Miss Teresa Carmody, Home Economics; and Dr. Clemens, Sociology.

Fontbonne Gives Luncheon At Teachers' Meeting

A Fontbonne Luncheon will form a part of the program when the Missouri State Teachers Association meets in St. Louis this week. The luncheon will be held tomorrow at 12 o'clock in the Main Dining Room at the Jefferson Hotel. After the luncheon Dr. Wilfred Mallon, S.J., will speak on the Personell Point of View in Teaching. Several of the alumnae of Fontbonne will talk about the work they are doing in special fields of education, such as physical therapy and visual education. Ruth Kane, alumnae, is chairman of the committee in charge.

Both religious and lay faculty members will be present at the luncheon and the conference. Students majoring or minoring in Education will also attend. The convention meets from December 3 through the 6th.

Music Students Entertain at Assembly

The music department presented a recital at the Assembly Monday. The glee club sang the following selections: "Comfort Ye," "Hallelujah Chorus," and "Looking Glass River."

Betty Hughes sang Schubert's "Ave Maria" and "Mi Chiamono Mimì" from La Bohème. "Scherzo in C Minor" by Chopin was presented by Marie Sansone, and Lee Maguire played "Rhapsody in F Minor" by Dohnany.

THE IDEAL GIFT . . .

SPALDING'S

Skate Combination

A beautiful white boot with FIGURE SKATE attached. The Boot is designed to give the foot and ankle the utmost support.

The FIGURE SKATE is so scientifically attached that even amateurs find in it smooth skating. And only

$11.45

COLBY-WITT

7821 FORSYTHE Clayton

College Aims Embodied In Revised Catalogue

Each year the Fontbonne catalogue goes through a certain amount of revision and modernization in preparation for its reprinting. Those in charge of this year's catalogue are putting an extra amount of effort into setting forth the aims and objectives of the school. The Aims and Objectives Committee met last Wednesday with Mother Mary Pius and Sister Joseph Aloysius to present them with the aims, well-formulated and developed, for their approval. The aims when finally revised will be presented to the faculty for consideration, and will then be embodied in the new catalogue, to be printed in December, 1941.

In a plea to the students, they were asked to submit their own ideas for a school slogan, stating its aims and objectives in a complete but concise form. From these would be chosen the best and most suitable slogan to be highlighted in the catalogue, and to be put into use in and around the school.

Members of the Aims and Objectives Committee are: Sister Berenice, chairman, Sister Berchmans, Sister Rose Agnes, Miss B. M. Mullins, and Doctor A. Clemens.

Santa And Snow Set Holiday Styles of Red and White Scheme

By GLORIA PANDJIRIS

Here we are almost in the midst of the Christmas whirl! And is everybody happy? Yes!! Christmas is one time when everyone wants to look her very best, and no doubt we all would like a new dress, a pair of shoes, or at least some new doekin gloves.

Let's take a look at what is being shown in the downtown stores and uptown shops—

One of the first things that comes to our minds when we think of snow and Santa and Jingle Bells, is formals. During mistletoe time, what girl doesn't want a new formal to stage the stag line with? We saw one that was all "white and fluff and shiny stuff." However, your reporter is slightly prejudiced when it gets down to formals—especially fluffy ones with bouffant skirts.

For the more conservative or for the type who "just can't wear frills," there are some really good-looking ones of faille taffeta, and broadened satins.

For shy open house or teas you might be jogging to during the holidays, a two-piece dress we saw would be practical (mind you) and stunning at one and the same time. A pale blue metallic cloth blouse (long waisted, of course), is worn over a plain black skirt. Here is where the practicality comes in—the blouse can be worn with a long black skirt (velvet, maybe); the short skirt can be worn with other blouses—maybe one of those wool ones trimmed with pearls and tiny gold and silver beads.

It seems everyone has gone white-wacky, so why not you??? There are some really eye-catching dresses that are just exactly right for informal dances and "bang-up" affairs in general. One particularly uh-huh one for a "gal with a figger" is a fitted botany wool trimmed with tiny red, white and green flowers embroidered in a tyrolean design. We also saw a pure white feather pill-box hat

JOAN SANDERS

It Was Worth It!

It is hardly enough to say that the Homecoming was a success—it was a huge success!

Of course, it is the result of hard and careful planning and the grand enthusiasm shown by the faculty, the mothers, and fathers, and the students.

Both the afternoon and evening card parties were crowded. Over seven hundred were served at dinner in the evening. The total proceeds amounted to $1900.

Joan Sanders Judged "Most Beautiful Baby"

The "personality kid" or the baby with the most personality among Fontbonne students is Joan Sanders, freshman, winner of the JUNIOR BABY PHOTO CONTEST. Alvera Grosse, junior, was chosen as the second prize winner. Honorable mention was awarded to Loraine Flynt, senior, Ruth McNamara, senior, Betty Schuh, sophomore, Mary Rita Wahlert, senior, Laverne Connors, freshman, and Patricia Hackett, sophomore.

Sister Susanne Marie, Miss Gertrude Troemel, and Dr. Alphonse Clemens were the judges of the contest. They judged the entries Friday morning after the contest had run a week. Entries were received by a junior at the decorated booth in the den. The entry fee was ten cents for each picture. The prize was a doll dressed like a baby the face of which was a silver dollar; it was awarded at assembly on Monday by Betty Boll, Junior Class President.

Life or Death For the F.E.D.?

The Fontbonne Educational Digest, F.E.D., which was published last year by the students in the Education Department, has been missed about the campus. Upon investigation, Sister Berenice, head of the department, said that time could not be found to mimeograph copies. Having them printed will necessitate charging the girls a nickel for each copy. The question is: "Are they willing to do this?"

Sister Berenice expressed her hope that the digest would appear next semester so that its publication will not be suspended altogether. The condensed articles that appear in the editions are valuable to students applying for teacher's certificates.

Students Rule!

A new and democratic idea was introduced at the assembly of November 17. The entire student body was invited to participate actively in deciding a question which had hitherto remained in the hands of the student governing body. The activity and enthusiasm of all the students showed their appreciation and concern.

It was decided that the girls be in formals, and the "Dads" be dressed to their choice for the Father-Daughter Banquet on December 2.

Fontbonne Sends Ten Delegates to A.C.P. Convention

Representative groups from colleges and universities all over the United States attended the twentieth annual convention of the Associated Collegiate Press in St. Louis, November 20-22. Convention headquarters were at the Statler Hotel. Delegates from Fontbonne were: Barbara Raupp, Mary Virginia Richard, Edwina Wright, Gloria Pandjiris, Katherine Herman and Kathleen Burke from the Font staff, and Aileen Block, Betty Higgins, Rosemary Ward, and Agnes Menges from The Fontbonne staff.

CAbany 9524

La Fern Beauty Salon

Fredric's Gabrieleen

Eugene and Rilling Permanent Waves

7815 FORSYTHE

Defeat By Monticello Aggregation Ends Fontbonne's Hockey Season

Pre-Game Rally Demonstrates School Spirit

Smoke and crowds, speeches and flames, cheers and cameras flashing—what was it? Fontbonne's pep rally last Friday night. A real exhibition of "O, Fontbonne, we love you" was the huge bonfire set off to send off the hockey team to Monticello. Cheer leaders, Betty Knetzer and Mary McKeon, set the spark in the throng which sent up cheers to mingle with the rising smoke.

Miss Willis expressed her hopes for the team to end the season with a victory. Captain Louise LaBarge thanked the team and the student body for its loyalty throughout the season. The lively spirit continued with a snake dance around the crackling fire. Next a cheer for the faculty which Sisters Alfred, Hilda, and Marguerite reciprocated with raps for the team. Impressive was the school song and earnest prayer for safety and success.

MONTICELLO ENTERTAINS

The weatherman couldn't have ordered a more perfect day for Fontbonne's invasion of Monticello in Godfrey, Illinois. What a cheery welcome for hungry rivals—a delicious lunch and a trip around the campus.

At two o'clock the battle began with the Fontbonne lassies taking to the sunny field in crisp new white uniforms. In the first minutes of the game, the ball was taken up and down the field by evenly matched players, Pendergast keeping her cage untouched. Monticello unbalanced the seeing-sawing by driving in a goal for the only tally of the first half.

The second half increased the cheers of Fontbonne's spectators as the Purple and Gold repeatedly hammered their opponents' goal, but the goalie stopped seemingly sure points. Finally, Captain LaBarge drove in the ball to tie the score. Play continued dangerously near the Godfrey girls' goal but in the last minute of play Monticello dashed down the field to break the tie and win 2 to 1.

Sodality Starts Drive For Christmas Baskets

The Sodality is sponsoring its annual Christmas Basket Drive. These baskets are to be used for needy Saint Louis families. Marie Sansone, president of the Sodality, informed us that she has three price lists, $1.75, $2.25, and $2.75; however, it is entirely up to one's own discretion how she wishes to purchase it. One may order a basket under one of the above listed prices or she may fix up a basket of their own choice. We have also been asked to bring any unused clothes we may have at home for the bundle drive.

The officers of the Sodality, the spiritual representatives of each class, and a few chosen seniors will entertain St. Joseph's Colored High School with a party just before Christmas. To help defray the expense of this party we are asking your help by either bringing a cake or some candy.

Santa Claus has promised that he will come back to Fontbonne this year to join us in our all-school Christmas Party on December 18, and he wants to see all of you there, for you know, he only sees you once a year. Our admission to see Santa will be two cans of food, which he has offered to contribute to the Christmas Basket Drive.

GREEN LEA Ice Cream Shoppe

Famous for Malts

For Your Next Party Order

— Call —

CABany 3474

Monsignor Steck Will Address Diplomats On December 9

Monsignor Leo J. Steck will be guest speaker at the International Relations Club meeting to be held December 9. His topic will assuredly be timely and interesting. Dr. Clemens will address the group giving them some instructions concerning active social work. At present the members are engaged in making scapulars for the boys in service and plans are being formulated to do work at the various day nurseries in the city.

On November 11, when the club last met, several reports were given and plans were discussed for the day nursery work project and for the possibility of aiding a rural parish. The guest speaker was Father Scheller, instructor at St. Louis University, who gave an interesting talk on Family Disintegration and the Social Worker.

Clayton Drug Co.

Complete Drug Store
CENTRAL and FORSYTHE
CABany 2920

OPTICAL GOODS PHOTO SUPPLIES

Erker's

Moving Picture

Machines

Art Materials

Two Stores:

610 OLIVE ST.

and

518 N. GRAND

Henrietta Sabadell Elected President Of Las Teresianas

At the second meeting of the Spanish Club, election of officers took place. The meeting was held November 17, at four o'clock in Fine Arts Parlor. Those elected were Henrietta Sabadell, sophomore, president; Kathleen Carroll, sophomore, secretary - treasurer; and Edwina Wright, sophomore, chairman of the entertainment committee. Henrietta Sabadell and Edwina Wright harmonized on two Spanish songs, after which all the members joined in singing popular Spanish songs. Several games were played in Spanish. To show the type of music popular in Spain centuries ago, two records were played. There was no definite date set for the next meeting, but it is to be one in which the Christmas theme is predominant.

Home Ec. Club Prepares Gifts for Needy Families

The department stores have nothing on Home Ec. Club members. Just to prove it to yourselves, visit the sewing room in the Science building, and see the girls at work on their Christmas projects. The preparation of layettes seems to appeal to most of the girls. Others are working on wool skirts, stuffed animals, or children's dresses. A public exhibition of the finished products will take place on or after December 10th. December 10th is also the day for the next club meeting which will begin at 7:30.

'Come All Ye Faithful' To 'Messiah' Presentation

The Glee Club will present G. F. Handel's "Messiah" the evening of December 11, at 8:15 p. m. The soloists will be Patricia Sweeney, Suzanne Nachtmann, Grace Noonan, Josephine Rizzi, Joan Brandt, and Betty Hughes. There will be no admission fee, but contributions will be appreciated because half of the proceeds will go to the Sodality for its Christmas basket drive and half to the organ fund. All the students are urged to bring their friends and relatives.

Poetry Club Has Christmas Meeting

A Christmas program featuring group carols and a graphic story of the birth of Christ will be the theme of the next meeting of the Poetry Club, December 15, at 7:00 p. m., in the Fine Arts Parlor.

Alice Cejka, last year's president, will read a serious poem on the significance of Christmas, and several light poems will be read by Josepha Lorenz and Lucille O'Connell. A graphic story of the Birth of Christ, written by Evelyn Hurley, will be given by Rosemary Murphy, accompanied at the piano by Marie Sansone.

Alice Voegeli, '41, will be the piano soloist for the evening. Edwina Wright will present an excerpt from Charles Dickens' "Christmas Carol."

KAMPUS KRIER

Jane Marie Simon Will Debate December 7

Jane Marie Simon, a senior, is going to uphold Fontbonne on the affirmative side of a debate with Saint Louis University at the next meeting of the Classical Club on Sunday afternoon, December 7.

On Wednesday evening, November 19, Mary McCabe and Rosemary Walsh were received into the Beta Zeta Chapter of Eta Sigma Phi, a National Classical Honor Society. At this meeting, Jane Marie Simon was elected secretary of the local chapter, which was formed in June, 1941.

Footlights Club Aids In Producing Play

The members of the Footlights Club are helping out the members of the play production class in the production and management of "The Seven Little Rebels" to be given tomorrow.

At the last meeting of the Footlights Club a pin was selected for the members of the club. Plans are under way for the play that the club will present in February.

Missions Discuss Far Eastern Needs

At the December meeting of the C.S.M.C., Sylvia Mastro gave an instructive lecture entitled, "More Missionaries for Africa," showing their poignant needs. Audrey Murphy discussed other mission work in her original manner.

The secretary read a letter from Bombay, India, thanking the unit for last year's contribution. Offerings this year have already been sent to another Indian mission, Patna. The present endeavor of the group is to aid the missionaries of war torn China.

Sister Sylvia Marie, our ever-interested moderator, is well pleased with the attendance at the meetings. Sister calls attention to an interesting letter from Father Crane, formerly instructor in Religion, now stationed at an army camp in California.

Convention Delegates Return for Work

After attending the Associated Collegiate Press Convention at the Statler Hotel in St. Louis, delegates gave brief reports on the high points of the convention at the Press Club meeting, Monday, November 24.

Members of the Press Club urge everyone to keep the evening of February 12 open for the play, "Michael and Mary," by A. A. Milne to be presented at the St. Louis Little Theater.

Artists Complete Puppets For Assembly Show

Members of Delta Phi entertained Miss Marjorie Sutherland at dinner November 25. Miss Sutherland has been assisting Delta Phi in the manipulation of the puppets for their coming puppet show. The show, "An Adventure of Sherlock Holmes," is to be given in assembly shortly after the Christmas vacation.

The regular meeting of Delta Phi was held Monday, December 1. Puppets were completed, and

For Resident Students 'Twill Be a Gala Night

The second and third floors of the Fine Arts Building are humming with excitement as the girls are feverishly preparing for the long-awaited-for Christmas vacation and trip home.

The Resident students' formal dinner will be held December 16, in their dining room. The program scheduled for this affair will be:

Harmony Trio—Lee Maguire, Alice Lee Sawyers, Mary Jane Scott
Toast to the Nuns—Roslyn Rohman
Holiday Poem—Catherine Pendergast
Toast to Santa Claus—Dorothy Casey
Toast to Girls—Kathleen Burke
Vocal Solo—Mary Elizabeth Huff

For the first time, Santa Claus will be there to distribute presents, and to participate in the fun and frolic.

Scientists Plan Education Via Moving Pictures

During the Phi Beta Chi meeting on Thursday evening, November 28, the purchase of a 16 mm. sound moving picture machine was announced. The science department obtained this machine to aid in visual education. Information about recent research work not available through the ordinary channel of publication can easily be procured through the newest educational films. The 16 mm. size projector was chosen because all such educational films are made in that size.

Among the list of films that the department plans to use in the future, is "Surface Chemistry" in which Dr. Langmuir, Nobel Prize Winner, describes his oil-film experiments that demonstrate the size and shape of molecules. "Exploring with X Rays," and "Curve of Color" are two other films that will be used in the near future.

French Club Plans Christmas Program

The meeting of the French Club was held on Monday, November 24, in the absence of the club president, Yvonne Cornu, who returned from the hospital last week after a serious illness. Evelyn Numainville, secretary, was in charge of the program which included "Cookoo," a French song sung by the members; a riddle asked in French by Evelyn Numainville, and a poem recited by Barbara Raupp. The meeting adjourned after the whole club joined in playing Buzz using the French language.

The next monthly meeting of the club will be moved up a week to Monday, December 15, because of the Christmas holidays. The program, in the hands of Anna Marie Hebbberger, will consist of French readings and songs suitable for the Christmas season.

The final demonstration in handling and control of the puppets was given by Miss Sutherland.