

Dec. 1993

Commencement 1993-94

THE DRESS

American academic costume was not established until 1895. It consists of three types of gowns and three styles of hoods. The bachelor's gown has long, pointed open sleeves with no ornamentation. The master's gown has even longer sleeves, which are closed at the bottom but feature openings about halfway down for the hands. The doctor's gown has full-length lapels of velvet and bell-shaped sleeves with three horizontal velvet bars. The color of caps and gowns is usually black; however, some universities feature doctoral gowns of distinctive colors, such as Harvard's crimson and Yale's deep blue. Many schools outside the United States have also adopted colorful gowns.

The doctor's hood is the longest and fullest among degrees. The major field of study can be determined from the velvet facing on the hood according to the following color scheme: White, the arts; gold-yellow, science; purple, law; apricot, nursing; green, medicine; sapphire, business administration; lemon, librarianship; scarlet, theology; dark blue, doctors of philosophy.

The hood is lined with silk in the colors of the institution which granted the degree. Fontbonne College's hood lining colors are purple and gold.

The academic procession is led by the faculty marshal. The marshal is traditionally the faculty member with the longest service to the College.

Following the marshal is the class moderator, a member of the College Community elected by students to this honor, and degree candidates. Members of the Fontbonne College faculty and staff then follow, wearing the academic dress of their respective degree-granting institutions. The procession ends with the Fontbonne College Board of Trustees and the members of the platform party.

Welcome to the Dunham Student Activity Center for Fontbonne's 1993-94 Commencement. In order to ensure everyone's enjoyment of the event, we ask you to observe the following requests:

1. Smoking is not permitted in the Mabee Gymnasium at any time. Smoking is permitted in the Alumni Caf; second floor.
2. The hallway above the bleachers on the west side of the gym (in front of the Athletic Department Offices and the Van-Lear Black Aerobic Studio) is available for use as a photography area. Because floor space is limited, photographers are not permitted on the gym floor. Also, the third-floor running track is closed during the ceremony. As a reminder, professionals will be videotaping the ceremony and taking photographs as each graduate receives a diploma.

Thank you for your attention and cooperation.

HONORARY DEGREE

Fontbonne College is committed to all that is true and good in human experience. The College stands apart from other colleges and universities in its effort to provide students with a ceaseless desire to learn, and an appreciation of the world around them. In promoting this approach to life, the College recognizes individuals whose lives inspire others to do the same.

Anne Keefe, journalist, meets the challenge of the preservation and communication of that truth. She believes in the mission to educate and to create responsible citizens of the world. Our future lies in their hands.

Through the messages she brings to others as a journalist, through her example as a community leader, through her life of giving and caring, Anne Keefe exemplifies the type of leadership to which Fontbonne graduates aspire.

For upholding and continuing the mission of Fontbonne College, the President and the Board of Trustees of Fontbonne College confer on

Anne Keefe

Doctor of Communication Arts, honoris causa
