Entrance Hymn: This is the Day
 This is the day that the Lord has made.
 Let us be glad and rejoice in it!
 Let us be glad and rejoice,
 This is the day that the Lord had made.

Refrain:
 Alleluia, alleluia! Alleluia is our song of joy!
 Sing the song we will sing forever: Alleluia, alleluia!

This is the day all the world is new.
Let us be glad and rejoice in it.
Let us be glad and rejoice,
This is the day all the world is new!

Greeting: Priest: On this day of special celebration of the Fontbonne Community, may God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ, give you love and peace.

People: And you also.

Penitential Rite: Priest: Let us pause and think of the times when we have not been a witness of Christ's peace and love to one another.

Priest: For the times we have not spoken out or acted against the injustices present in our lives.

People: Lord, have mercy.

Priest: For the times we have set up walls and not communicated.

People: Christ, have mercy.

Priest: For the times we have been indifferent to our brothers' needs instead of being concerned.

People: Lord, have mercy.

Gloria: Priests and People:

Glory to God in the highest,
and peace to his people on earth.
Lord God, heavenly King, Almighty God and Father
we worship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glory.
Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father Lord God, Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world:
have mercy on us;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father:
receive our prayer.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

First Reading: Read by Donna Dlugos, Senior Class President
Taken from A Time For Love, by Eugene C. Kennedy

Response: From Psalms '70, Psalm 19
ALL: The heavens are telling God's glory,
the sky proclaiming the work of his hands,
Day speaks the word to day,
night makes it known to night.
It is not speech, not human words,
not a voice that cries aloud,
But the sound goes out over all the world,
the message to the ends of the earth.
Yahweh's word is pure,
enduring forever.

Second Reading: Matthew 28: 16-20

Response: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Homily: Reverend Gene Contadino

Profession of Faith: We believe in man, and a world in which it is good to live for all mankind; and that it is our task to create such a world,
We believe in equal rights for all men; in love, justice, brotherhood and peace. We must continually act out these beliefs.
We are inspired to do so because we believe in Jesus of Nazareth, and we want to orientate our lives to Him.
In doing so, we believe that we are drawn into the mysterious relationship with the one, whom He called His father.
Because of our belief in Jesus, we make no claims to exclusivity.
We shall work together with others for a better world.
We believe in the community of the faithful, and in our task to be the salt of the earth and the light of the world, but all this in humility,
And we believe in the resurrection to a new life with Jesus our brother in the kingdom of the Father and the love of the Spirit.
Amen.

Communion Songs:

Refrain:
I have come to bring you life more abundantly Life full of mystery, if you will let it be.

If you will come to me, you will not hungry be,
The bread I give is life Refrain
If you will come to me, you will not thirsty be,
The wine I give is life Refrain
Come now as one, to eat the bread of joy,
And thru my joy have life Refrain
Come now as one to drink the cup of pain,
And thru my death have life Refrain
And now the fellowship, the love we share,
A life beyond compare Refrain

Refrain:

Peace I leave with you my friends, shalom, my peace, in all you do

Peace I leave with you my friends. I give to you so you can give to other too.

To share his love is why I came, to show his kindness to all men.
Go now, my friends, and do the same, until I come again. . Refrain Take my hand and be at peace; The Spirit of our love I send.

And with this love you will be free, until I come again. . Refrain

With this love all men will know that loneliness is at an end.
Rejoice, my brothers, though I go, for I will come again. . Refrain

Refrain:

To everything, turn, turn, turn
There is a season, turn, turn, turn
And a time to every purpose under heaven.

A time to be born, a time to die
A time to plant, a time to reap
A time to kill, a time to heal
A time to laugh, a time to weep. Refrain.

A time to love, a time to hate
A time of war, a time of peace
A time to embrace, a time to refrain from embracing. Refrain.

A time to gain, a time to lose
A time to reap, a time to sow
A time to love, a time to hate
A time for peace, I swear it's not too late. Refrain.

Thanksgiving

after Communion: Read by Don Sutton

Adapted from Your Word is Near, by Huub Oosterhuis

Let us thank the Lord for sustaining the world.
We thank him too for the courage of so many people and that children are born and that love exists between men and women, and friendship between all frontiers.

We thank Him too for letting us witness His love and gentleness in people's eyes and the soft skies, His strength in the wind and rain, His innocence in a small child, and His life in one another.
We thank Him for the crises that have helped us to grow towards our goals and for the encouragement we have received in this growing process.

We thank Him too for the energy that is devoted to spreading free and generous understanding between so many people.

We pray that we may never lose the urge to discover for ourselves and to pause in wonder at what is before us.

We pray too that justice and right and loyalty may be stronger than injustice and destruction everywhere in the world, in our cities on our campus and in ourselves.

Dismissal:

Priest: I bless you in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Go forth and witness to what you have heard.

People: Amen, Alleluia

Exit Song:

Refrain:

Stand together for what you believe.
Work for what must be done.
Love each other in all that you do.
Till all my people are one.
